History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense: McNamara, Clifford, and the burdens of Vietnam, 1965-1969, 2011 A History of the 1957 Federation of Malaya Constitution Joseph M. Fernando, 2024-12-09

Fernando examines important aspects of the drafting of 1957 Federation of Malaya constitution related to the system of governance division of legislative and executive powers the conceptualisation of citizenship and the roles of the judiciary and election commission The book sheds new light on the balances that the Reid Commission sought to embed in the constitution and the historical constitutional debates and discussions which greatly shaped the framing of the new federal constitution between 1956 and 1957 Drawing on historical evidence mainly from declassified primary constitutional documents it analyses the submissions debates and discussions among the framers and various interest groups during the drafting of the constitution between 1956 and 1957 to discern more clearly the intentions of the framers on many aspects of governance and distribution of powers embedded in the constitutional provisions This book reveals more deeply the nature and complexity of the constitutional issues faced by the framers and how they attempted to reach compromises between the various interest groups in Malaya It is a valuable resource for scholars and academics of Malaysian Asian and Commonwealth constitutional history as well as those interested in history law political science and important aspects of governance and distribution of powers in the system of parliamentary democracy

The Constitutional History of England from the Accession of Henry VII, to the Death of George II Henry Hallam, 1862

Deplorable Mary E. Stuckey, 2021-11-15 Political campaigns in the United States especially those for the presidency can be nasty very nasty And while we would like to believe that the 2020 election was an aberration insults invective and yes even violence have characterized US electoral politics since the republic's early days By examining the political discourse around nine particularly deplorable elections Mary E Stuckey seeks to explain why From the contest that pitted Thomas Jefferson against John Adams in 1800 through 2020's vicious chaotic matchup between Donald Trump and Joe Biden Stuckey documents the cycle of despicable discourse in presidential campaigns Looking beyond the character and the ideology of the candidates Stuckey explores the broader political economic and cultural milieus in which each took place In doing so she reveals the conditions that exacerbate and enable our worst political instincts producing discourses that incite factions target members of the polity encourage undemocratic policy and actively work against the national democratic project Keenly analytical and compulsively readable Deplorable provides context for the 2016 and 2020 elections revealing them as part of a cyclical and perhaps downward spiraling pattern in American politics Deplorable offers more than a comparison of the worst of our elections It helps us understand these shameful and disappointing moments in our political history leaving one important question Can we avoid them in the future

The Official History of Privatisation, Vol. II David Parker, 2013-06-19 This is Volume II of Professor Parker's authoritative Official History of Privatisation covering the period from the re-election of Margaret Thatcher in 1987 to the election of Tony Blair in 1997 Volume II considers in detail several of the major privatisations including those of airports steel water electricity coal and the railways as well as a number of smaller ones Each privatisation involved major challenges in terms of industrial restructuring organising successful sales and in a number of cases establishing effective regulatory regimes The policy evolved and new methods of selling and regulating were put in place that enabled further disposals to occur Monolithic nationalised industries with their emphasis on the benefits of economies of scale vertical integration and rationalisation were replaced by industrial structures rooted in the importance of commercial management risk taking and competition In government departments and parts of the National Health Service direct employees were replaced by private contractors and private investment became a characteristic of public infrastructure in the form of PFI PPP schemes This study draws heavily on the official records of the British government to which the author was given full access and on interviews with the leading figures involved in each of the privatisations including ex ministers civil servants business and City figures as well as academics that have studied the subject This book will be of great interest to students of privatisation British political history and of business and economics in general History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense Alfred Goldberg, Steven L. Rearden, 1984 History of the Office of the Secretary of Defense Doris M.
