Achieving College Dreams Rhona S. Weinstein, Frank C. Worrell, 2016-03-17 Achieving College Dreams How a University Charter District Partnership Created an Early College High School tells the story of a remarkable 10 year collaboration between the University of California Berkeley and Aspire Public Schools to develop and nurture the California College Preparatory Academy Bridging the two cultures artfully described as Pac Man the charter district meets chess the university the school serves as an exemplar in providing low income and first generation college youth with an excellent and equitable education Framed by a longitudinal lens findings from community engaged scholarship and a diversity of voices from students to superintendents this book charts the journey from the initial decision to open a school to the high school graduation of its first two classes The book captures struggle improvement and success as it takes readers inside the workings of the partnership the development of the school and the spillover of effects across district and university Confronting the challenge of interweaving rigor and support its authors explore such critical ingredients as teacher student advisories school transition the home school divide building a supportive college preparatory culture teaching with depth relational power and equity the forging of an academic identity and scaling up At a time of sharply unequal schools glaring disparities in college readiness and heightened expectations Achieving College Dreams uniquely extends the knowledge base about how to better prepare underserved students for college eligibility and success The book also calls for universities to step up to the plate as partners with districts to ensure both excellence and equity in secondary education for all children

Always Becoming, Never Arriving David J. Mulder, 2024-12-19 Does Jesus care how I arrange the desks in my classroom How I evaluate student work The way I interact with students and colleagues What if all these small moment by moment classroom decisions a Christian teacher makes are actually the evidence of living discipleship Teaching Christianly does not just happen it is the result of deliberate choices to work toward shrinking the gap between what we say we believe and what we actually do in our teaching This book is an exploration of the teaching profession through the lens of living out our calling through teaching as discipleship Whether you are new to the profession or a seasoned veteran you will find ideas to expand your imagination about what teaching Christianly looks like considering topics that run the range from professionalism and ethics to a biblical view of learners and learning to content knowledge and curriculum to planning instruction and assessment Teaching Christianly is a journey a process of growing as a more faithful disciple and more closely following Jesus day by day Learning to teach Christianly is an adventure of always becoming and never arriving until that day when we meet the Lord face to face Welcome to the adventure The 1929

Bunion Derby Charles B. Kastner, 2014-03-31 On March 31 1929 seventy seven men began an epic 3 554 mile footrace across America that pushed their bodies to the breaking point Nicknamed the Bunion Derby by the press this was the second and last of two trans America footraces held in the late 1920s The men averaged forty six gut busting miles a day during seventy eight days of nonstop racing that took them from New York City to Los Angeles Among this group two brilliant runners Johnny Salo of Passaic New Jersey and Pete Gavuzzi of England emerged to battle for the 25 000 first prize along the mostly unpaved roads of 1929 America with each man pushing the other to go faster as the lead switched back and forth between them To pay the prize money race director Charley Pyle cobbled together a traveling vaudeville company complete with dancing debutantes an all girl band wearing pilot outfits and blackface comedians all housed under the massive show tent that Pyle hoped would pack in audiences Kastner s engrossing account often told from the perspective of the participants evokes the remarkable physical challenge the runners experienced and clearly bolsters the argument that the last Bunion Derby was the greatest long distance footrace of all time Enrichment Clusters Joseph S.
