History HI Paper 3 Nov 2013:

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford, 2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere The SAGE Handbook of Research in International Education Mary Hayden, Jack Levy, Jeff Thompson, 2015-10-13 The landscape of international education has changed significantly in the last ten years and our understanding of concepts such as international global and multicultural are being re evaluated Fully updated and revised and now including new contributions from research in South East Asia the Middle East China Japan Australasia and North America the new edition of this handbook analyses the origins interpretations and contributions of international education and explores key contemporary developments including internationalism in the context of teaching and learning leadership standards and quality in institutions and systems of education the promotion of internationalism in national systems This important collection of research is an essential resource for anyone involved in the practice and academic study of international education including researchers and teachers in universities governmental and private curriculum development agencies examination authorities administrators and teachers in schools Handbook of Research on Higher Education in the MENA Region: Policy and Practice Baporikar, Neeta, 2014-06-30 This book examines the need for a paradigm shift in the area of post secondary education and innovation in the emerging yet relatively understudied MENA region Provided by publisher Singapore Jason Lim, Terence Lee, 2016-05-26 On 9 August 2015 Singapore celebrated its 50th year of national independence a milestone for the nation as it has overcome major economic social cultural and political challenges in a short period of time Whilst this was a celebratory event to acknowledge the role of the People's Action Party PAP government it was also marked by national remembrance as founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew died in March 2015 This book critically reflects on Singapore's 50 years of independence Contributors interrogate a selected range of topics on Singapore's history culture and society including the constitution education religion and race and thereby facilitate a better understanding of its shared national past Central to this book is an examination of how Singaporeans have learnt to adapt and change through PAP government policies since independence in 1965 All chapters begin their histories from that point in time and each contribution focuses either on an area that has been neglected in Singapore's modern history or offer new perspectives on the past Using a multi disciplinary approach it presents an independent and critical take on Singapore's post 1965 history A valuable assessment to students and researchers alike Singapore Negotiating State and Society 1965-2015 is of interest to specialists in Southeast Asian history and politics

Trans Formations Alex Clare-Young, 2024-05-31 Trans Formations is not a book about trans and non binary Christians it is a book by trans and non binary Christians Who they are what they experience and what they understand stretches beyond trans apologetics to formative anthropological and theological notions without which the body of anthropological and theological knowledge is incomplete They have things to say about God and about being human and their yet to be accessed insights matter Whilst there is an abundance of material about trans ethics there is little trans written theology or theological anthropology that is formative rather than trans critical or trans apologetic Situated within a queer paradigm this book presents the identities insights and ideas of ten diverse trans and non binary Christians Alex Clare Young through their own identity experiences and insights of researching alongside nine other wonderful human beings writes their trans formational journey into being The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N. Godehardt, 2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies The Future, Declassified Mathew Burrows, 2025-06-25 Twenty five years ago when Mathew Burrows went to work for the CIA as an intelligence analyst the world seemed frozen Then came the fall of the Berlin Wall and the implosion of the Soviet Union suddenly unpredictability became a universal theme and foresight was critical For the past decade Burrows has overseen the creation of the Global Trends report the key futurist guide for the White House Departments of State and Defense and Homeland Security Global Trends has a history of making bold predictions and being right In 2004 it argued that al Qaeda's centralized operations would dissolve and be replaced by groups cells and individuals the very model of the 2012 Boston bombings In 2008 it included a scenario dubbed October Surprise imagining a devastating late season hurricane hitting an unprepared New York City In The Future Declassified Burrows for the first time has expanded the most recent Global Trends report into a full length narrative forecasting the tectonic shifts that will drive us to 2030 A staggering amount of wholesale change is happening from unprecedented and widespread aging to rampant urbanization and growth in a global middle class to an eastward shift in economic power and a growing number of disruptive technologies Even our physical geography is changing as sea levels rise and faster commercial shipping routes open up through a warming Arctic region The book concludes with its most provocative section four fictional paths to 2030 with imagined storylines and characters based on analysis by the most authoritative figures in the intelligence community As Burrows argues we are living through some of the greatest and most momentous developments in history Either we take charge and direct those or we are at their mercy The stakes are particularly high for America's standing in the world and for ordinary Americans who want to maintain their quality of life Running the gamut from scary to reassuring this riveting book is essential reading Multimedia Stardom in Hong Kong Leung Wing-Fai, 2014-11-27 This book details original research into the practices and discourse of multimedia stardom alongside changing social and cultural landscapes in Hong Kong since 1980 It examines the cultural and sociological significance of stardom in the region and the conditions which gave rise to such famous stars as Jackie Chan This book elaborates the distinction between multimedia stardom and celebrity asserting that in Hong Kong stardom has been central in the production and consumption of local media while demonstrating the importance of multimedia stardom as part of the cultural Chinese mediascape and transnational popular culture from both historical and contemporary contexts

Globalization and Labour in the Twenty-First Century Verity Burgmann, 2016-04-14 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license Globalization has adversely affected working class organization and mobilization increasing inequality by redistribution upwards from labour to capital However workers around the world are challenging their increased exploitation by globalizing corporations In developed countries many unions are transforming themselves to confront employer power in ways more appropriate to contemporary circumstances in developing countries militant new labour movements are emerging Drawing upon insights in anti-determinist Marxian perspectives Verity Burgmann shows how working class resistance is not futile as protagonists of globalization often claim She identifies eight characteristics of globalization harmful to workers and describes and analyses how they have responded collectively to these problems since 1990 and especially this century With case studies from around the world including Greece since 2008 she pays particular attention to new types of labour movement organization and mobilization that are not simply defensive reactions but are offensive and innovative responses that compel corporations or political institutions to change Aging and less agile manifestations of the labour movement decline while new expressions of working class organization and mobilization arise to better battle with corporate globalization This book will be of interest to students and scholars of labour studies globalization political economy Marxism and sociology of work Push Back Judith Large, 2016-12-15 In 2009 after decades of conflict the Sri Lankan government proclaimed the decisive defeat of the Liberation Tamil Tigers of Elam Subsequently the state proved resistant to attempts by the UN and other international bodies to promote post war reconciliation or reform In this incisive new work Judith Large investigates the ways in which the Rajapaksa government was able to subvert international diplomatic efforts as well as exploring the wider context of rising Sinhalese nationalism the attendant growth of discrimination against minorities and efforts by both the diaspora and citizens within Sri Lanka to work towards a positive peace Push Back is vital reading not only for those interested in Sri Lanka but also for those concerned about the wider implications of the conflict for human rights peace making and geopolitics

Essays on the History of Parliamentary Procedure Paul Evans, 2017-12-28 8 February 2015 marked the 200th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Erskine May May is the most famous of the fifty holders of the office of Clerk of the House of Commons His continued renown arises from his Treatise upon the Law Privileges Proceedings and Usage of Parliament first published in 1844 and with its 25th edition currently in preparation It is known throughout those parts of the world that model their constitutional arrangements on Westminster as the Bible of Parliamentary Procedure This volume celebrates both the man and his book Bringing together current and former Clerks in the House of Commons and outside experts the contributors analyse May's profound contribution to the shaping of the modern House of Commons as it made the transition from the pre Reform Act House to the modern core of the UK's constitutional democracy in his lifetime This is perhaps best symbolised by its enforced transition between 1834 and 1851 from a mediaeval slum to the World Heritage Palace of Westminster which is the most iconic building in the UK The book also considers the wider context of parliamentary law and procedure both before and after May's time It constitutes the first sustained analysis of the development of parliamentary procedure in over half a century attempting to situate the reforms in the way the central institution of our democracy conducts itself in the political contexts which drove those changes

A History of Disease in Ancient Times Philip Norrie, 2016-06-25 This book shows how bubonic plague and smallpox helped end the Hittite Empire the Bronze Age in the Near East and later the Carthaginian Empire The book will examine all the possible infectious diseases present in ancient times and show that life was a daily struggle for survival either avoiding or fighting against these infectious disease epidemics The book will argue that infectious disease epidemics are a critical link in the chain of causation for the demise of most civilizations in the ancient world and that ancient historians should no longer ignore them as is currently the case

Sri Lanka at the Crossroads of History Zoltán Biedermann, Alan Strathern, 2017-06-07 The peoples of Sri Lanka have participated in far flung trading networks religious formations and Asian and European empires for millennia This interdisciplinary volume sets out to draw Sri Lanka into the field of Asian and Global History by showing how the latest wave of scholarship has explored the island as a crossroads a place defined by its openness to movement across the Indian Ocean Experts in the history archaeology literature and art of the island from c 500 BCE to c 1850 CE use Lankan material to explore a number of pressing scholarly debates They address these matters from their varied disciplinary perspectives and diverse array of sources critically assessing concepts such as ethnicity cosmopolitanism and localisation and elucidating the subtle ways in which the foreign may be resisted and embraced at the same time The individual chapters and the volume as a whole are a welcome addition to the history and historiography of Sri Lanka as well as studies of the Indian Ocean region kingship colonialism imperialism and early modernity

Natural Hazards Edward Keller, Duane DeVecchio, John Clague, 2016-10-04 Natural Hazards focuses on hazards as the interface between humanity and its needs for space and resources as well as on the ongoing geologic processes of Earth and features many new Canadian examples and discussions while retaining the best U S and international illustrations The third Canadian edition strikes an ideal balance between the scientific and the human aspects of natural hazards combining basic scientific principles within a solid social framework

The Child in Post-Apocalyptic Cinema Debbie Olson, 2015-03-06 The child in many post apocalyptic films occupies a unique space within the narrative a space that oscillates between death and destruction faith and hope The Child in Post Apocalyptic Cinema interrogates notions of the child as a symbol of futurity and also loss By exploring the ways children function discursively within a dystopian framework we may better understand how and why traditional notions of childhood are repeatedly tethered to sites of adult conflict and disaster a connection that often functions to reaffirm the rightness of past systems of social order This collection features critical articles that explore the role of the child character in post apocalyptic cinema including classic recent and international films approached from a variety of theoretical methodological and cultural perspectives

The Plunder of Black America Calvin Schermerhorn, 2025-02-11 The long history of the racial wealth gap in America told through the stories of seven Black families who struggled to build wealth over multiple generations Wealth is central to the American pursuit of happiness and is an overriding measure of well being Yet wealth is conspicuously absent from African American households Why do some 3 5 million Black American families have zero or negative wealth Historian Calvin Schermerhorn traces four hundred years of Black dispossession and decapitalization what Frederick Douglass called plunder through the stories of families who have strived to earn and keep the fruits of their toils Their struggles reveal that the ever evolving strategies to strip Black income and wealth have been critical to sustaining a structure of racialized disadvantage These accounts also tell of the quiet heroism of those who worked to overcome obstacles and defy the plunder From the story of Anthony and Mary Johnson abducted from Angola and brought to Virginia in 1619 to the enslaved Black workers dispossessed by the Custis Washington family to Venture Smith born Broteer Furro who purchased his freedom to three generations of a family enslaved in the South who moved north after Emancipation to the Tulsa massacre and the subprime lending crisis Schermerhorn shows that we cannot reckon with today s racial wealth inequality without understanding its unrelenting role in American history and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman, Esther Brito Ruiz, 2024-11-01 This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether Divided into four thematic sections Genocide and Imperialism War and Genocide State Repression Military Dictatorships and Genocide and Human Caused Famine Attrition and Genocide A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents including case studies from Biafra Yemen Argentina Russia China and Bengal They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe Combating Inequality Alexander Gallas, Hansjörg Herr, Frank Hoffer, Christoph Scherrer, 2015-12-22 Economic inequality has recently gained considerable academic attention However two important aspects of inequality have not been discussed systematically its multidimensional nature and the question of what can be done to reverse it This book offers insights from scholars representing the Global Labour University which operates in Brazil Germany India South Africa and the US They analyse the various drivers of inequality assess policy responses and discuss counterstrategies The main findings of this book are that rising levels of inequality cannot be addressed only with the standard policies responses namely education redistribution and green growth In addition the way markets currently function needs to be corrected The chapters in this volume focus on specific fields of contemporary capitalism where important drivers of inequality are located for example the labour market the financial system the tax system multi national corporations and gender relations Other chapters discuss in detail where political opportunities for change lie They critically assess existing countermeasures the idea of a green economy and its implications for inequality and existing campaigns by trade unions and new social movements against inequality In line with the global nature of the problem this book contains case studies on countries both from the north and south with considerable economic and political weight This book provides academics political practitioners and civil society activists with a range of ideas on how to drive back inequality It will be of interest to those who study political economy development economy and labour economics British Air Power Viktoriya Fedorchak, 2018-09-20 British Air Power demonstrates how the Royal Air Force sought to adapt in regard to the roles it could play and the conflicts in which it could be used as well as the evolution of air power doctrine at a time of rapid changes in national politics and in the international arena The development of new concepts and theories the evaluation of operational experience the political environment and budgetary cuts and the role of academics and personalities in development of doctrine are thus all explored to show changes in strategic thinking regarding air power Fedorchak further examines the influence of jointery the process of co operation between the army navy and air force on thinking conceptualising teaching and using air power in recent operations in Afghanistan Iraq Libya and Syria A contemporary complement to more historical studies British Air Power provides a very detailed look at the development of air land doctrine in the RAF since the turn of the century

A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides
