How to Write Poetry Fred Sedgwick, 2005-08 Plenty of people want to write poetry yet while it is not necessarily difficult to write poetry badly it is harder to write it well In this guide Fred Sedgwick explains with numerous examples from successful poets how the creative process works from the initial impulse to write all the way through to the crafted and expressive poetry at the end

How to Write Poetry Fred Sedgwick, 2005-06-01 Plenty of people want to write poetry yet while it is not necessarily difficult to write poetry badly it is harder to write it well In this guide Fred Sedgwick explains with numerous examples from successful poets how the creative process works from the initial impulse to write all the way through to the crafted and expressive poetry at the end

EPZ Teaching Poetry Fred Sedgwick, 2003-11-01 Too often the teaching of poetry is divided into the reading of poetry and the writing of poetry This division is strange and illogical because the two activities are not only linked but intermeshed This book will be an attempt to show how indispensable reading poetry is to writing it and vice versa The text will be divided into three sections The first section will be comprised of advice from his own experience on reading poetry to children at KS1 and KS2 The second section will comprise of case studies of children responding to poetry and will show how much children can actually understand The last section will be comprised of a case study of children writing poems

Inspiring Children to Read and Write for Pleasure Fred Sedgwick, 2010-10-04 A marvellous book of great practical value James Carter The lack of interest in reading for pleasure amongst large numbers of primary age pupils put off by mechanical worksheet driven approaches is a cause for major concern amongst education professionals and parents However Inspiring Children to Read and Write for Pleasure from writer journalist and education commentator Fred Sedgwick uses the context of literature to illuminate and inform the teaching of literacy in the primary classroom and inspire children to a love of books Aimed at Year 4 5 and 6 primary pupils but also significant as a transitions text to teaching secondary school pupils this book shows how children's fluency in language their thinking their talking their reading their listening and their writing can be greatly improved and enriched through contact with literature placed in an understandable context With both focus on prose and poetry primary pupils will be introduced to using grammar syntax and sentence construction skills in meaningful contexts Through the use of inspiring case studies schedules of work and practical classroom applications as well as literary figures like Dickens Coleridge Carroll Rossetti and Shakespeare primary school children can enjoy reading and writing again With a number of sample passages to use teaching guidelines and examples of children's work this book will be of great interest to literacy coordinators practicing Primary PGCE and Key Stage 2 teachers and those on BA Primary B Ed courses

Read My Mind Fred Sedgwick, 2002-11 This book aims to help all those involved with children and their learning through poem writing The book begins with an introduction outlining the importance of poetry It discusses poetry in terms of children's learning and the imagination

Writing to Learn Fred Sedgwick, 2002-01-04 Writing to Learn looks at how poetry can be used as an enjoyable way to teach literacy across the curriculum It includes remarkable poems and stories by children as well as clear descriptions of how to teach creatively within the framework of the National Literacy Strategy The book goes through the primary curriculum subject by subject Poetry and Science and Maths Poetry and Personal Social and Moral Education Poetry and Art and Music Poetry and Religious Education Poetry for its Own Sake The author includes advice on different ways children can compose their writing and how computers can be a valuable aid to children s writing examples of published poetry and how it can be used to stimulate good writing advice on bringing writers into schools and publishing school anthologies This book will prove invaluable to teachers and parents keen to teach writing whilst seeing children as active and critical learners It shows that if we expect great things from children in writing we get them Jumpstart! Poetry Pie Corbett,2008-09-09 A good poetry idea should help the children feel excited about writing and enable them to think of what to write developing their imagination creativity and writing skills Jumpstart Poetry is about involving children as creative writers through writing poems The book contains a bank of ideas that can be drawn upon when teaching poetry but also at other times to provide a source for creative writing that children relish There are more than 100 quick warm ups to fire the brain into a creative mood and to jumpstart reading writing and performing poetry in any key stage 1 or 2 classroom Practical easy to do and vastly entertaining this new jumpstarts will appeal to busy teachers in any primary classroom Learning Outside the Primary Classroom Fred Sedgwick,2012-05-31 We believe that every young person should experience the world beyond the classroom as an essential part of learning and personal development whatever their age ability or circumstances Learning outside the classroom is about raising achievement through an organised powerful approach to learning in which direct experience is of prime importance LOTC Initiative manifesto In Learning Outside the Primary Classroom the educationalist and writer Fred Sedgwick explores in a practical way the many opportunities for intense learning that children and teachers can find outside the confines of the usual learning environment the classroom This original work is based on tried and tested methods from UK primary schools The author draws on current concerns in the educational world regarding outdoor learning as exemplified by the eight sector Learning Outside the Classroom LOtC initiative supported by Ofsted but remains refreshingly independent in approach Using a metaphor of concentric circles Learning Outside the Primary Classroom starts with a brief opening chapter based in the classroom itself before moving outwards to explore the learning possibilities presented by the immediate environs of the school playgrounds gym halls sports fields etc Later chapters move beyond the school gates to explore the local shops parks religious centres libraries and town halls and the myriad learning opportunities they represent The final chapters explore the possibilities of larger scale day trips to major galleries and museums and more ambitious field trips The Writers
