It Happened Like This:

It Happened Like This Vicky Foster, 2024-06-20 A searing inventive memoir that interrogates misogyny heroism and women's power in an often unsafe world through the lens of Vicky's Foster's own traumatic background How do you get close to people when the people close to you keep shattering your world Vicky Foster thought she'd finally escaped violence when her abusive ex partner was murdered Vicky was 25 She tried to draw a line under the past and move on with her life This meant overcoming PTSD trusting people again building her career and ultimately learning to return to herself But 16 years later the past came crashing down on her when one of her ex partner's murderers hit the headlines This time as the hero of the 2019 London Bridge terrorist attack Lyrical and raw It Happened Like This is a book about misogyny in all its forms about heroism and villainy about class and the climate of neglect created by austerity but most importantly it's a book about women and their power explored through the prism of Vicky's story

It Happened Like This Adrienne Lindholm, 2018-07-31 In the wild something inside me opens to innovation inspiration creativity and imagination It's a good feeling one that leaves me light and full of energy free to imagine who I want to be in this life Yet it's slippery and ephemeral and I can never seem to pack it out with me Adrienne Lindholm It Happened Like This is on the surface a memoir about what it means to live and love in one of the wildest places on the planet But the love described is not a simple one it's a gritty sometimes devastating often blood pumping kind of feeling played out in the rugged Alaska wilderness In an authentic and honest voice writer Adrienne Lindholm recounts her move to Alaska as a young woman eager to begin her career in environmental and wildlife studies She finds herself initially out of her depth among her peers many of whom are also Outsiders new to the state but who seem more experienced more confident Eventually she finds her way immersing herself in the rigors of wilderness adventures and building a community of outdoorsy friends to sustain her Soon she falls in love with JT and gradually at times painfully they build a life together and decide to start a family amidst the wild Adrienne celebrates the many ways in which Alaska and her outdoor adventures there inspired self discovery as well as revealing her difficult and intimate journey into motherhood Her love story encompasses the outline of massive mountains on the horizon viewed for the first time a caribou moving through an alder forest the effort to climb a glaciated peak and the peace that settles when contemplating a quiet Arctic lake At times her love for JT but also for nature and life also feels savage like when she charges onto a glacier alone or when she shoots kills and skins her first animal With It Happened Like This readers take an intimate gently humorous and occasionally adrenalin spiked journey into adulthood and into the depth and comfort of wilderness

It Happened Like This Nurse! TJ Edwards, 2016-12-13 Another hilarious book by the author of You've Got a What in your Where TJ Edwards has the knack of seeing the funny side of some quite serious conditions they see arrive every day in Accident Emergency You've seen the reviews of her first book and this is more of the same Simply brilliantly written and you cannot help laughing all the way through
