Laughing Through Life Larry Moran, 2015-07-29 This hilarious book invites you to sit down and share dinner with the Morans a family of ten children and after dinner to share in the familys pranks and crises You will walk the streets of Carmel Indiana a guiet small town visit its shops and meet its neighborly people Along the way you will learn what it was like growing up in a large family in a small town during the 1950s and 1960s Whimsical and at times knee slapping tales guide you through childhood teen years early adulthood and beyond You get a peek at family dynamics and the struggles of an insecure boys first encounters with romance You also learn what it was like to be a journalist a government economist a parent and a golf fanatic The stories are warm touching and always funny The people you meet mostly based on the authors siblings are friendly and fun loving The situations based on real events and family lore will keep you laughing The author helps you see life through humors prism Mademoiselle de Maupin Théophile Gautier, 2020-08-18 Mademoiselle de Maupin is a historical romance based on the life of French opera star Mademoiselle Maupin who was a first rate swordswoman and often went about disguised as a man Originally the story was to be about the historical La Maupin who set fire to a convent for the love of another woman but later retired to a convent herself shortly before dying in her thirties Gautier instead turned the plot into a simple love triangle between a man d Albert and his mistress Rosette who both fall in love with Madelaine de Maupin who is disguised as a man named Th odore The novel consists of seventeen chapters most in the form of letters written by d Albert or Madelaine The message behind Gautier's version of the infamous legend is the fundamental pessimism about the human identity and perhaps the entire Romantic age Decennial Edition of the American Digest ,1921 Our Navy, the Standard Publication of the U.S. Navy ,1926 Narrative Gravity Rukmini Bhaya Nair, 2004-06-01 In this elegantly written and theoretically sophisticated work Rukmini Bhaya Nair asks why human beings across the world are such compulsive and inventive storytellers Extending current research in cognitive science and narratology she argues that we seem to have a genetic drive to fabricate as a way of gaining the competitive advantages such fictions give us She suggests that stories are a means of fusing causal and logical explanations of real events with emotional recognition so that the lessons taught to us as children and then throughout our lives via stories lay the cornerstones of our most crucial beliefs Nair's conclusion is that our stories really do make us up just as much as we make up our stories
