Resilience Nicola Canessa, 2021-05-28 The Resilience publication is part of the outputs produced within the European project KAAU Knowledge Alliance for Advanced Urbanism www.kaau.net Erasmus program and consists of two volumes the first Resilience Intelligent Cities Resilient Landscapes offers reflections on the general framework and on the theme of resilience applied to intelligent cities and the landscape while the second volume GOA Resilient City analyses the case study of Genoa RESILIENCE is a combined word created by Manuel Gausa merging the words resilience and intelligence Intelligence is intended not only as the artificial but also as the human one though undoubtedly today the world of BigData and OpenData can help the better understand of the city and its dynamics Resilience instead is a term derived from the materials science and indicates the property that some materials have to maintain their structure or to regain its original shape after being subjected to crushing or deformation The history of making the city of Genoa safe from floods is ancient history And complex very complex It is the story of the wrong relationship between the river and the city between nature and the urban and industrial development of the capital between the flow of watercourses and their covering and cementing of the banks and beds of streams It is perhaps one of the paradigmatic examples of the senselessness of man's choices towards his environment But it is also the story of the delays of politics and institutions of bureaucracies of the system of public works in our country of an Italy more attentive to formal respect for rules than for the rules of nature In the midst of this history there are the disasters floods the dead the injured the damage of the flooding of the Bisagno torrent which with its 30 km cuts the city from north to south in one of the most built up areas of Italy to reach the sea in the Foce district Lightness Catherine Meurisse, 2018-06-20T00:00:00+02:00 In the aftermath of the murderous attack on the Charlie Hebdo offices on January 7 2015 cartoonist Catherine Meurisse struggles with the trauma of losing her friends and looks for a way to move forward with her life and her art She soon enters a dissociative state where she loses her memories especially those associated with esthetic experiences This leads her on a quest to seek beauty and lightness in the world around her with the help of guiding lights including Proust Stendhal Baudelaire and two provocative graffiti artists Throughout the book Meurisse uses her limber cartooning and dynamic writing to weave a tapestry of raw emotion and philosophical reflection laced with a strain of wry humor After Charlie Hebdo Gavan Titley, Des Freedman, Gholam Khiabany, Aurélien Mondon, 2017-11-15 As the world looked on in horror at the Paris terror attacks of January and November 2015 France found itself at the centre of a war that has split across nations and continents The attacks set in motion a steady creep towards ever more repressive state surveillance and have fuelled the resurgence of the far right across Europe and beyond while leaving the left dangerously divided These developments raise profound questions about a number of issues central to contemporary debates including the nature of national identity the limits to freedom of speech and the role of both traditional and social media After Charlie Hebdo brings together an international range of scholars to assess the social and political impact of the Paris attacks in Europe and beyond Cutting through the hysteria that has characterised so much of the initial commentary it seeks to place these events in their wider global context untangling the complex symbolic web woven around Charlie Hebdo to pose the fundamental question how best to combat racism in our supposedly post racial age The Charlie Hebdo Affair and Comparative Journalistic Cultures Lyombe Eko,2019-11-14 The Charlie Hebdo terrorist attack of January 7 2015 shook French journalism to the core and reverberated around the world triggering a cascade of responses from journalists media outlets cartoonists and caricaturists from diverse geographies of freedom of expression and journalistic cultures This book is a multifaceted case study that describes and explains sameness and difference in diverse journalistic conceptualizations of the Charlie Hebdo affair from a comparative international perspective It explores how different journalistic traditions cultures worldviews and styles conceptualized and reacted to the clash between freedom of expression and respect for religious sentiments in the context of terrorism where those sentiments are imposed on the media and secular societies through intimidation coercion and violence The book analyzes the political and cultural clashes between the core human right of freedom of expression and rite of respect for religious sentiments which is situated on the outer periphery of the human right of freedom of religion It also examines how media outlets editors and cartoonists from different politico cultural contexts and journalistic cultures in Africa Asia Europe the Middle East and North and South America addressed the delicate issue of Mohammed cartoons in general and the problem of re publication of the controversial Charlie Hebdo Je Suis Charlie Mohammed cartoon in particular

Humour in Contemporary France Jonathan Ervine,2019 Introduction Humour a serious issue in contemporary France Charlie Hebdo from controversy to consensus Dieudonn from anti racist activism to allegations of anti Semitism Jamel Comedy Club stand up comedy la fran aise Islam and humour more than just a debate about cartoons

The Collapse of Freedom of Expression Jordi Pujol,2023-02-15 This book offers a holistic account of the problems posed by freedom of expression in our current times and offers corrective measures to allow for a more genuine exchange of ideas within the global society The topic of free speech is rarely addressed from a historical philosophical or theological perspective In The Collapse of Freedom of Expression Jordi Pujol explores both the modern concept of the freedom of expression based on the European Enlightenment and the deficiencies inherent in this framework Modernity has disregarded the traditional roots of the freedom of expression drawn from Christianity Greek philosophy and Roman law which has left the door open to the various forms of abuse censorship and restrictions seen in contemporary public discourse Pujol proposes that we rebuild the foundations of the freedom of expression by returning to older traditions and incorporating both the field of pragmatics of language and theological and ethical concepts on human intentionality as new complementary disciplines Pujol examines emblematic cases such as Charlie Hebdo free speech on campus and online content moderation to elaborate on the tensions that arise within the modern concept of freedom of expression The book explores the main criticisms of the contemporary liberal tradition by communitarians libertarians feminists and critical race theorists and analyzes the gaps and contradictions within these traditions Pujol ultimately offers a reconstruction project that involves bridging the chasm between the secular and the sacred and recognizing that religion is a font of meaning for millions of people and as such has an inescapable place in the construction of a pluralist public sphere
