Patrolling Epistemic Borders in a World of Borderless Pandemics Artwell Nhemachena, Rewai Makamani, 2021-11-19 The global epistemological gendarmerie do not only police epistemologies but they also infect the world with infectious epidemics of laughter targeted at those people whose epistemologies are offhandedly condemned as sterile and useless in controlling and containing pandemics Patrolling epistemic borders in ways that demobilise indigenous epistemologies the global epistemological policemen have ironically managed to prevent transgressive epistemologies from crossing borders but they have fatally failed to prevent the transgressive COVID 19 from recurrently crossing borders be they bodily national or continental Brandishing fetishised degree and diploma certificates African comprador academics who are more interested in fetishised ranks and titles than in creativity and innovation have also fatally failed to help African communities by producing vaccines for Africans by Africans Arguing that Eurocentric epistemologies have become sterile fetishes the book contends that such epistemologies have disabled African scholars from actively producing vaccines on a continent where there are paradoxically more epidemics of mimetic laughter than there are efforts at creativity and innovation The book is useful for scholars in sociology anthropology development studies languages and communication natural sciences historical studies and social work

Reviews on Biomarker Studies of Metabolic and Metabolism-Related Disorders Paul C. Guest,2019-03-27 The book recognizes that throughout the scientific medical and economic communities new tests incorporating biomarkers are needed to improve the diagnosis of patients suffering from metabolic disorders The early identification of those at risk of developing obesity will help to place these individuals on the best treatment course as early as possible for improved treatment outcomes This will also help to cut costs incurred by the healthcare services For all of this to occur new research efforts are needed to identify novel biomarkers that can be used to predict the disease in the presymptomatic stage for disease monitoring and for prediction of treatment response It is also possible that new drug targets can be identified using these approaches which in turn can lead to the development of new treatment approaches This volume also includes a series of reviews on biomarker discovery and usage in the study of diseases marked by perturbations in metabolism It will describe the pros and cons of the various approaches and cover the successes and failures in this important research field

Those Who Eat Like Crocodiles Laura Fitzgerald,2020-02-06 Those

Who Eat Like Crocodiles is for anyone who has tried to understand and be understood in an alien environment It is for anyone who knows what it s like to reach a crossroads in life and realise that somewhere along the way the rules of the game changed and you weren t notified It s for anyone who has had to confront an unwelcome and disappointing discovery that you may not be the person you spent your whole life believing you were Kasinomics GG Alcock,2015-10-01 Kasinomi is a book as eclectic mysterious and colourful as the places and people it explores eKasi the lokasie the South African township once an apartheid ghetto is today an amazingly transformed place This township today is an eclectic mix of mansions shacks spaza shops rocking taverns hawkers taxis and hot wheels In this kasi there are vibrant businesses energetic people a tightly networked social community and abundant hope That is not to say there isn t extreme poverty suffering and dissatisfaction particularly on the peripheries in the huge shack settlements but to paint the place as a slum is a massive mistake Kasinomi attempts to cast a light on the invisible matrix at the heart of South Africa s informal economies and the people who live in them Living and doing business in African marketplaces requires an ethos uniquely suited to the informal to the invisible to the intangible Kasinomi will take you down those rural pathways weave between claustrophobic mazes of shacks browse a muti market visit a spirit returning ceremony and save money with gogo in a stokvel among many more people and places After almost twenty years of focusing on marketing to the informal sector GG Alcock CEO of specialist marketing company Minanawe showcases a number of groundbreaking and very successful case studies in this invisible informal world His vivid anecdotes and life experiences and how they link to understanding and inspiration for business ideas will make you gasp laugh and shake your head in wonder South Africa-- the Present as History John S. Saul,Patrick Bond,2014 A new history of South Africa that examines today s post apartheid society through the lens of its earlier history When A Man Cries Siphiwo Mahala,2014-08-01 Themba Limba is a family man who is caught between his flourishing career as a teacher and municipal councillor in the township of Sekunjalo and his overriding sexual interests Despite his attempts to maintain his status in the community his actions eventually lead to his downfall What follows is an account sometimes tragic occasionally humorous and always compelling of Themba s efforts to regain his dignity and pride in the eyes of his family and community When a Man cries is an uncompromising and engrossing novel about the challenges of manhood in contemporary South African society It interrogates the dynamics of township life and the human and socio economic realities of the most impoverished communities in post apartheid South Africa The Aging-Disability Nexus Katie Aubrecht,Christine Kelly,Carla Rice,2020-06-01 As the global population ages disability demographics are shifting Societal transformation and global health inequities have changed who is likely to reach old age who is likely to live with disability and the relationship between aging and disability in various socio cultural and geopolitical contexts The Aging Disability Nexus breaks new ground by bringing gerontology and disability studies into dialogue with each other through a variety of empirical conceptual and pedagogical approaches Contributors explore the tensions that shape the way disability and aging are understood experienced and responded to at both individual and systemic levels while avoiding the common tendency to conflate these overlapping elements and map them onto a normative faulty notion of the human life trajectory This perceptive work analyzes the distinction between aging with a disability and aging into disability and reveals how multiple identities socio economic forces culture and community give form to our experiences
