Macbeth Characterization Graphic Organizer Use this graphic organizer to collect your thoughts about characterization in Macbeth-n As you read each scene. Record what you learn about the character. Add the line from the play that supports your idea. Lady Macbeth Observations Text support Looks Actions It is assumed that she committed suicide. She couldn't handle the guilt. She is sleep walking showing that she is greatly disturbed. The queen, my lord, is dead. Lady Macbeth has taken to sleep walking Speech

The text shows that she is a leader, and also that she is even more evil than her husband Being the leader of something means you have the most passion for it, and in this case it's evil. She has complete disregard for others lives. She knows that the charge would be death, and is gladly willing to sentence that upon an innocent. She has no remorse for having her husband take a life. Before she was saying to just wash off the spot and all is fine. In her sleep she can't get out a spot; symbolizing that she is not fine. Oh shall put This night's great business into my dispatch if he do bleed. I'll gild the faces of the grooms withal, For it must seem their guilt. A little water clears us of this deed; How easy is it then Out, damned spot! Out, I say! Thoughts She thinks her husband is too weak to go through with taking a life. She feels he is too kind-hearted. Yet do I fear thy nature; It is too full o' the milk of human kindness To catch the nearest way Interactions she is a manipulator, and use this to convince her husband to kill the king. As the pop drunk Wherein you dressed yourself? Hath it slept since?... Letting "I dare not" wait upon "I would," Like the poor cat I' the adage? (Whole speech from top to bottom. Left out middle because it's too long) ' Off Macbeth Text Support He is an easily manipulated man. His wife was able to get him to go through with killing Duncan. Macbeth is no longer kind, and will strike the good people that serve him. Macbeth gathers the courage to kill Duncan [Striking him.] He is horrified when he kills the king, and he's feeling guilty.

He's not a monster, but someone that is easily manipulated to the point of murder. Macbeth becomes more confident, and almost fearless. His courage goes away just as fast as it came. He used to think that a life was valuable, but here he says that a life means nothing. I'll go no more; I am afraid to think what I have done; Look onto again I dare not. I have supped full with horrors; Direness, familiar to my slaughter's thoughts, Cannot once start me. Accursed be that tongue that tells me so, For it hath cowed my better part of man! Ale/Told by an idiot,/full of sound and fury,/signifying nothing Thoughts He believes in some form of religion (probably Christian or Catholic). He also believes that what goes around comes around. He is having second thoughts about killing the king. He doesn't feel he should go

Macbeth Character Development Essay:

The character development of Macbeth and of evil in Shakespeare's play Fabian Wähner, 2016-09-27 Essay from the year 2014 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Potsdam Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik course Shakespeare's Tragedies II language English abstract So foul and fair a day I have not seen Shakespeare Act I Scene 3 l 38 These words mentioned by Macbeth the main protagonist of the corresponding tragedy echo one of the main themes of the whole play nothing is as it seems to be This central topic also arises in other tragedies by William Shakespeare In Macbeth this motive appears in a much stronger way This tragedy tells the journey of a former loyal and shining hero who evolves into the center of evil Macbeth is considered as one of the most sinister tragedies of William Shakespeare From the beginning on the setting is depicted as a world full of nightmares darkness murder and treason The play is constituted in a barren landscape considered as a reference to hell Most of the events happen during the nighttime which supports this sinister impression Some of the attempts that were made to analyze Macbeth describe him as pure evil and a tyrant A psychopath who mercilessly defends his position as a king by killing every possible opponent who crosses his path Other interpretations draw him as a victim torn between the question of what is right and what is wrong and influenced by the evil that surrounds him How can a man who is firstly described as a hero and a loyal subject change in such a dramatic way Which path does he take to become such a criminal individual like he mostly is described What changes happen within his mind These questions about the character development or in other words the development of the evil within Macbeth are the core of this paper In this research the Reclam version of Shakespeare's Macbeth published 2011 in Ditzingen Germany is used William Shakespeare: an analysis of Macbeth's character Alessandro De Vivo, 2007-04-27 Seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 0 University of Education Ludwigsburg language English abstract I would like to base my essay on the protagonist Macbeth Probably composed in late 1606 or early 1607 Macbeth is the last of Shakespeare's tragedies the others being Hamlet King Lear and Othello If Hamlet is the grandest of Shakespeare's plays Macbeth is from a tragic standpoint the most sublime and the most impressive as an active play If we just consider the plot Macbeth is a relatively simple play In fact like Richard III and numerous pre-Shakespearean plays it deals with a traditional form the rise and fall of a great man In the first part of the play we read about Macbeth's rise to power then he manages to become king of Scotland From this moment on he begins with a period of tyranny that will end with Macbeth's death and the accession to the throne of the legitimate king For this reason he can be considered as the epitome of a tragic hero In the course of the play we notice a great development of Macbeth's character At the beginning he is a man much honoured by his countrymen for his leading and courageous part in defence of his good king and native land During many conflicts he showed his great courage and he continues showing this personal quality also when he becomes king and he has to take a lot of difficult decisions But this first description about Macbeth's character is not the definitive one in fact as soon as we meet him we find out also his negative qualities for example that he is both ambitious and murderous It happens when the two Scottish generals Macbeth and his friend Banquo returning victorious from the great battle against a rebel army assisted by the troops of Norway meet three witches in the middle of the road They begin to speak to Macbeth the first of them greets him with the title of Thane of Glaning so it is in the reality the second follows by giving him the title of Thane of Cawdor to which honour he has no pretensions the third predicts that Macbeth will be king of Scotland Then turning to Banquo they prophesy that his son will be king of Scotland So they turn into the air and vanish After a while Macbeth and his friend are stopped by some messengers of the king who are empowered by him to confer upon Macbeth the dignity of Thane of Cawdor an event so miraculously corresponding with the predictions of the witches astonishes Macbeth who begins to think about the other and more important prophecy Romantic Actors and Bardolatry Celestine Woo,2008 Especially those who have sensed that the denial of the mother s voice has played a critical role in their own self alienation and its melancholy moods will discover that this book has much to offer them as well Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Book Jacket Shakespeare - Henry V Matthew Woodcock,2008-06-25 Matthew Woodcock provides a survey of the critical responses to this popular play as well as the key debates and developments from the seventeenth century to the present day Leading the reader through material chronologically the Guide summarises and assesses key interpretations setting them in their intellectual and historical context The Lady Macbeth of the Mtsensk District Nikolai Leskov,2023-12-17 Nikolai Leskov s The Lady Macbeth of the Mtsensk District is a masterfully crafted novella that delves into the turbulent psychological landscape of desire power and moral corruption Set in rural Russia the narrative follows the tragic fate of Katerina Izmailova a woman trapped in a loveless marriage who embarks on a passionate affair that spirals into treachery and murder Leskov employs a rich vivid prose style combined with elements of realism and dark humor to explore the oppressive social structures of 19th century Russia thereby offering readers a layered critique of gender and class The work reflects the broader literary currents of the time particularly the emergence of Russian naturalism as Leskov probes the depths of human emotion and ambition Nikolai Leskov born in 1831 in Russia was a prominent writer known for his keen observations of Russian society and folklore which significantly informed his literary voice His upbringing in an aristocratic family combined with his early experiences in journalism endowed him with a unique perspective on the struggles of the marginalized These themes permeate The Lady Macbeth of the Mtsensk District showcasing Leskov s ability to intertwine personal narrative with broader societal critiques reflecting a cultural milieu ripe for such an exploration This provocative and haunting tale is highly recommended for readers intrigued by psychological drama and social commentary Leskov s insightful portrayal of Katerina s inner turmoil coupled with the vivid depiction of Russian rural life offers a compelling examination of the human condition For anyone interested in classic literature that challenges the status quo this novella is not to be missed In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A
