The Writing in the Stars Rodney Williamson, 2007-01-01 Born in Mexico City in 1914 writer poet and diplomat Octavio Paz won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1990 eight years before his death in 1998 The Writing in the Stars explores Paz s life and ideas by establishing a dialogue between the structure and recurring images of his major poems and the ideas of Carl Jung Although other literary critics have pointed to Jungian concepts in Paz a comprehensive study on the subject has yet to be undertaken Rodney Williamson takes up this challenge adopting a Jungian perspective to explore successive phases of Paz s poetry Williamson illustrates how archetypal images infuse Paz s early poetry and his surrealist period and shows how the circular structure of Paz s longer poems such as Piedra de sol and Blanco are based on the Eastern sacred circle or mandala a major archetype of psychic wholeness in Jung He argues that a grasp of the psychological importance of Jung s archetypes is essential to understanding the various syntheses of creative truth and existence sought by Paz at different defining moments of his career as a poet The Writing in the Stars will prove fascinating to anyone interested in Latin American literature Jungian psychology or critical theory

The Poet as Experienter Adam Staley Groves, 2025-08-13 In The Poet as Experienter Wallace Stevens and Nonhuman Intelligence Adam Staley Groves approaches Stevens not merely as poet thinker but rather as experienter and theorist of what is today called the phenomenon UFOs Challenging both Stevens scholarship and our broader understanding of poetic consciousness the book presents a radical appraisal of Stevens s oeuvre as an extended coded testimony of contact with nonhuman intelligence Drawing from journals uncollected poems and landmark works such as Harmonium and The Necessary Angel Groves argues that Stevens s poetic evolution mirrors the psychological and spiritual trajectory of an experienter grappling with anomalous phenomena long before cognitive frameworks for such were culturally available From moths and owls to missing time and the ethics of the imagination Groves reads Stevens s work as a sustained effort to reckon with anomalous phenomena whose language has not yet come Through careful textual analysis and historical correlation Groves positions the poet within a lineage that includes Coleridge Baudelaire Kierkegaard and Nietzsche who are recast not only as theorists of the imagination but as precursors to a modern metaphysical crisis now resurfacing through the contemporary discourse on UFOs and UAPs Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena Integrating rigorous literary scholarship with insights from ufology psychology and metaphysical philosophy Groves investigates Stevens s use of abstraction the ethics of poetic imagination and the emergence of the true subject as a form of ontological rupture In
