Missionary Journey Training Manual Cross Church:

Training Missionaries Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2016-09-08 Missionaries must know God be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the Bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries Missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help Christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth Effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field It also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of Christianity This book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing It shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together

Missiology, 2008 An international review The Reformers' Year Book, 1905 Crossing the Tiber Stephen K. Ray, 2011-02-16 An exhilarating conversion story of a devout Baptist who relates how he overcame his hostility to the Catholic Church by a combination of serious Bible study and vast research of the writings of the early Church Fathers In addition to a moving account of their conversion that caused Ray and his wife to cross the Tiber to Rome he offers an in depth treatment of Baptism and the Eucharist in Scripture and the ancient Church Thoroughly documented with hundreds of footnotes this contains perhaps the most complete compilation of biblical and patristic quotations and commentary available on Baptism and the Eucharist as well as a detailed analysis of Sola Scriptura and Tradition This is really three books in one that offers not only a compelling conversion story but documented facts that are likely to cinch many other conversions Karl Keating A very moving and astute story I am enormously impressed with Ray s candor courage and theological literacy Thomas Howard Stephen K Ray was raised in a devout and loving Baptist family His father was a deacon and Bible teacher and Stephen was very involved in the Baptist Church as a teacher of Biblical studies After an in depth study of the writings of the Church Fathers both Steve and his wife Janet converted to the Catholic Church He is the host of the popular award winning film series on salvation history The Footprints of God Steve is also the author of the best selling books Upon This Rock and St John s Gospel

Journey to a Better Way John Bailey,2015-03-12 Every day we witness the impact of poverty injustice disaster and disease Our desire as followers of Christ is to respond with compassion love and grace In recent years the church has responded in an unprecedented way to the needs in the world Still we see little in the way of true progress and transformation In addition despite our good intentions we may be doing more harm than good Speaking from his experience as a mission mobilizer John Bailey shares real life stories from the journey Stories of success and failure reveal that a better way is not only possible but it is within reach Journey to a Better Way seeks to investigate some of the core reasons why we do not have the impact we hope to have when we face these social physical and spiritual ills Looking through the lens of the Wesleyan mission heritage Journey to a Better Way explores correct motives healthy mission models and unity in the body of Christ as critical areas to consider if we hope to perform better missions
