Mothers and Sons: Centering Mother Knowledge Brillian Besi Muhomja, 2016-07-01 Mothers and Sons Centering Mother Knowledge makes a case for the need to de gender the framing and study of parental legacy The actualization of an entire collection on this dyad foregrounding motherhood without particularizing the absence of fatherhood is in itself revolutionary This assemblage of analytical narrative and creative renderings offers cross disciplinary conceptualizations of maternal experiences across difference and mothering sons at intersections The authors mother knowledge or that of their subjects delivers new insights into the appellations mother son motherhood and sonhood The English Version of the Polyglot Bible Containing the Old and New Testaments : with a Copious and Original Selection of References to Parallel and Illustrative Passages ,1870* From a Mother's Heart to Her Son Nelson Books, 2006 This handsome book shares life s lessons and experiences from a mother to her son A meditation photo essay it includes related scriptures and quotes that communicate love appreciation encouragement and wisdom The Subhedar's Son ,2018-12-20 The 19th century was a pioneering age for vernacular texts in India Vernacular writings became popular for making the first interventions of their kind written by Indians for Indians and establishing new genres such as the biographical novel The Subhedar s Son an award winning Marathi novel was written in 1895 and published by the Bombay Tract and Book Society and comprised overlapping personal and political trajectories The author Rev Dinkar Shankar Sawarkar inscribed multiple viewpoints into his narrative including that of his own father Rev Shankar Nana 1819 1884 a Brahmin who was one of the early converts of the Church Missionary Society in Western India and served the CMS and the Anglican Church in various capacities for many years Apart from Shankar Nana s conversion story Sawarkar provides readers with a blueprint of what a Brahminical journey towards Christian conversion encompassed while describing his personal background of having lived a Christian life as a product of both Brahminism and Christianity Attempting to deconstruct Brahmanism through Christianity he claimed Brahmin roots as a Christian with an aim of combatting the stigma of conversion Contextualized within the early history of Maharashtra s missions and the specificities of individual conversions the novel allows modern researchers to appreciate the particularity of regional and vernacular Indian Christianity This culturally specific Christianity spurred the production of Christian vernacular print culture associating being Marathi with broader and more universal frameworks of Christianity But this new genre also produced nativist forms of Christian devotion and piety Deepra Dandekar introduces this annotated translation of The Subhedar s Son with an examination of the Church Missionary Society s socio political context a biography of Shankar Nana gleaned from archival sources a brief summary of Sawarkar s biography and an analysis of the multiple political opinions framing the book Mothers of the Wise and Good Jabez Burns, 1850 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1964 Not Just Another Mother's Son Kaye Welsh Sexton, 2008-08-08 Not Just Another Mother s Son is a true story of Scott William Sexton an only child his life his battle with bipolar disorder and his death It is a sad story the early death of a child is always a sad story As it is also a story of trying to find meaning in that death it is also a story of faith Lastly it is a story of how sometimes people do not always remember their responsibilities and the consequences that flow from their decisions 'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen,2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth s controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen s achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother s Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing A Dictionary Of The English Language; In Which The Words Are Deduced From Their Originals; And Illustrated In Their Different Significations, By Examples From The Best Writers: Together With A History of the Language, and an English Grammar Samuel Johnson,1818 A dictionary of the English language: together with a history of the language, and an English grammar. With corrections [&c.] by H.J. Todd Samuel Johnson,1818 Early Modern Women's Complaint Sarah C. E. Ross,Rosalind Smith,2020-07-23 This collection examines early modern women s contribution to the culturally central mode of complaint Complaint has largely been understood as male authored yet as this collection shows early modern women used complaint across a surprising variety of forms from the early Tudor period to the late seventeenth century They were some of the mode s first writers most influential patrons and most innovative contributors Together these new essays illuminate early modern women s participation in one of the most powerful rhetorical modes in the English Renaissance one which gave voice to political religious and erotic protest and loss across a diverse range of texts This volume interrogates new texts closet drama song manuscript based religious and political lyrics new authors Dorothy Shirley Scots satirical writers Hester Pulter Mary Rowlandson and new versions of complaint biblical satirical legal and vernacular Its essays pay specific attention to politics form and transmission from complaint s first circulation up to recent digital representations of its texts Bringing together an international group of experts in early modern women s writing and in complaint literature more broadly this collection explores women s role in the formation of the mode and in doing so reconfigures our understanding of complaint in Renaissance culture and thought

Never Marry a Woman with Big Feet Mineke Schipper,Wilhelmina Janneke Josepha Schipper,2003-01-01 In this study the author analyses similarities differences and contradictions in the cultural norms about gender expressed in proverbs she has found in oral and written sources from over 150 countries Grouping the proverbs into categories as the female body love sex childbirth and the female power the author examines shared patterns in ideas about women and how men see them

Terms of Inquiry James W. Davis,2005-06-07 Introduction Of concepts and conceptualization Scientific concepts and the study of politics If maybe Social behavior and the indeterminacy of norms Methods for the production of practical knowledge A soldier's mother in France Rheta Childe Dorr,2023-09-22 Reproduction of the original Metrical versions of early Hebrew poetry. With a metrical version of the Canticles, and of passages from the later Prophets, by F. Rolleston Frances Rolleston,1867 Translating Warhol Reva Wolf,2024-07-11 The first study of the translations of Andy Warhol s writing and ideas Translating Warhol reveals how translation has alternately censored exposed or otherwise affected the presentation of his political and social positions and attitudes and in turn the value we place on his art and person Andy Warhol is one of the most influential artists of the 20th century and a vast global literature about Warhol and his work exists Yet almost nothing has been written about the role of translations of his words in his international reputation Translating Warhol fills this gap developing the topic in multiple directions and in the context of the reception of Warhol s work in various countries The numerous translations of Warhol s writings words and ideas offer a fertile case study of how American art was and is viewed from the outside Both historical and theoretical aspects of translation are taken up and individual chapters discuss French German Italian and Swedish translations Warhol s translations of his mother s native Rusyn language and culture the Indian artist Bhupen Khakhar s performative translations of Warhol and Warhol as translated for documentary television Translating Warhol offers a fascinating multi faceted perspective on Warhol contributing to our understanding of his place in history as well as to translation theory and inter cultural exchange Gregorius Brian Murdoch,2012-10-04 The story of the apocryphal pope and saint Gregorius was extremely popular throughout the middle ages and later in Europe and beyond In a memorable narrative Gregorius is born from an incestuous relationship between a noble brother and sister and is set out to sea with unspecific details of his origin He is found and brought up by an abbot but when revealed as a foundling leaves as a knight to seek his origins he rescues his mother s land from attack and marries her On discovering his sin he undertakes years of penance on a rocky islet which he survives miraculously An angel sends emissaries from Rome to find him after the death of the pope the key to his shackles is equally miraculously discovered and he becomes pope This hagiographical romance is not a variation upon Oedipus it uses the invisible sin of incest as a parallel both for original sin the sin of Adam and Eve and for actual sin It combines the universal theme of the quest for identity with the problem not of guilt as such which is inevitable but of how sinful humanity can cope with it Brian Murdoch traces the story s probable origins in medieval England or France and its later appearance in versions from Iceland and Ireland to Iraq and Egypt in verse and prose in full scale literary forms or in much reduced folktales in theological as well as secular
