The Dawn's Awake

By Otto Leland Bohanan

The Dawn's awake!

A flash of smoldering flame and fire
Ignites the East. Then, higher, higher,
O'er all the sky so gray, forlorn¹,
The torch of gold is borne.

The Dawn's awake!

The dawn of a thousand dreams and thrills,
And music singing in the hills
A paean² of eternal spring
Voices the new awakening.

The Dawn's awake!

Whispers of pent-up harmonies,
With the mingled fragrance of the trees;
Faint snatches of half-forgotten song--
Fathers! torn and numb,--
The boon of light we craved, awaited long,
Has come, has come!

1. Pitifully sad and abandoned or lonely;
2. A song of praise or triumph.

Johnson, 2011-11-21 Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they dont slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly its the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live

REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century

REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside International Truth Center Atlanta GA "Rubens and the Archaeology of Myth, 1610-1620" Aneta Georgievska-Shine, 2017-07-05 Focusing on four Rubens paintings created between 1610 and 1620 Prometheus Bound The Rape of the Daughters of Leucippus Juno and Argus and The Finding of Erichthonius this book re-examines the artist's approach to classical mythology These theoretically informed readings provide a fuller understanding of the dynamics of Rubens's copious visual language and can serve as methodological templates for looking at and reading of many other of his complex inventions Even by the standards of erudition commonly applied to Rubens's oeuvre as a whole these four paintings were created during a period characterized by a particularly intense engagement on his part with questions of artistic originality and ideal style Furthermore the learned themes of these images clearly point to a rarefied audience that could appreciate the intertextual qualities of ancient myths Like the artist himself these ideal beholders cultivated a mode of viewing steeped in classical and renaissance theories of literary and rhetorical composition Thus through these close readings the author illuminates the manner in which the rhetorical and poetic conventions of the period as well as the growing appreciation for the various allegorical layers of fables lead to a better understanding of Rubens's pictorial archaeology of classical myths

The Secular Scripture and Other Writings on Critical Theory, 1976-1991 Northrop Frye, 2006-12-15 Northrop Frye's The Secular Scripture was first published in 1976 and was soon recognized as one of his most influential works reflecting an extensive development of Frye's thoughts about romance as a literary form This new edition in the Collected Works of Northrop Frye series brings The Secular Scripture together with thirty shorter pieces pertaining to literary theory and criticism from the last fifteen years of Frye's life Frye's study illuminates the enduring attraction and deep human significance of the romance genre in all its forms He provides a unique perspective on popular fiction and culture and shows how romance forms have by their very structural and conventional features an ability to address both specific social concerns and deep and fundamental human concerns that span time and place In distinguishing popular from elite culture Frye insists that they are both ultimately two aspects of the same human compulsion to create in the face of chaos The additional late writings reflect Frye's sense at the time that he was working toward some kind of final statement which eventually saw the light of day only months before his death as Words with Power 1990

Understanding Literature ,1987 Semiotic Principles in Semantic Theory

Neal R. Norrick,1981-01-01 This study represents a contribution to the theory of meaning in natural language It proposes a semantic theory containing a set of regular relational principles These principles enable semantic theory to describe connections from the lexical reading of a word to its figurative contextual reading from one variant reading of a polysemous lexical item to another from the idiomatic to its literal reading or to the literal reading s of one or more of its component lexical items Semiotic theory provides a foundation by supplying principles defining motivated expression content relations for signs generally The author argues that regular semantic relational principles must derive from such semiotic principles to ensure the psychological reality and generality of the semantic principles

Frank O'Hara Now Robert Hampson,Will Montgomery,2022-04-02 Frank O Hara s writing is central to any consideration of 20th century American poetry This collection of essays the first to be dedicated to O Hara in nearly two decades asks why O Hara remains so important to 21st century readers and writers of poetry The book is transatlantic in tone combining American scholarship with a wide sampling of British writers For many O Hara s distinctive appeal depends on his witty depictions of urban experience his relationship to the painters of Abstract Expressionism and the exhilarating immediacy of his poetic voice Yet these chatty and approachable qualities coexist with a testing engagement with currents in European and American modernism Frank O Hara Now offers a comprehensive picture of the poet presenting the conversational insouciance of the writing alongside its more intransigent features
