Motorcycles and the Art of War Albert Galen,2001-04 As if Vietnam weren t enough of a challenge one vet hit the roads of America in quest of finding meaning from that great war Alone on a motorcycle Al Galen mirrors his experience as a soldier in the face of America 30 years later An unsettling and uncompromising view of ourselves A must read

Ramblers Michael Lenehan,2013-02-18 Today basketball is played above the rim by athletes of all backgrounds and colors But 50 years ago it was a floor bound game and the opportunities it offered for African Americans were severely limited A key turning point was 1963 when the Loyola Ramblers of Chicago took the NCAA men's basketball title from Cincinnati the two-time defending champions. It was one of Chicago's most memorable sports victories but Ramblers reveals it was also a game for the history books because of the transgressive lineups fielded by both teams. Ramblers is an entertaining detail-rich look back at the unlikely circumstances that led to Loyola's historic championship and the stories of two Loyola opponents Cincinnati and Mississippi State. Michael Lenehan's narrative masterfully intertwines these stories in dramatic fashion culminating with the tournament's final game a come-from-behind overtime upset that featured two buzzer-beating shots. While on the surface this is a book about basketball it goes deeper to illuminate how sport in America both typifies and drives change in the broader culture. The stark social realities of the times are brought vividly to life in Lenehan's telling illustrating the challenges faced in teams' efforts simply to play their game against the worthiest opponents.

A Pain in the Tushis Mark Reutlinger, 2015-11-17 Combining the classic charms of Agatha Christie with the delightful humor of M. C. Beaton's Agatha Raisin novels Mark Reutlinger's Mrs. Kaplan mystery series returns as a notorious crank meets an untimely fate. Yom Kippur is a day of reflection and soul searching. But at the Julius and Rebecca Cohen Home for Jewish Seniors Vera Gold misses this opportunity to atone for her many sins when she up and dies. Indeed Vera was such a pain in the tushis to all those around her that when her sister claims Vera was deliberately poisoned the tough question isn't who would want to kill her but who wouldn't. Having already solved one murder with her dear friend Ida Rose Kaplan has a sleuthing reputation that precedes her. It's only natural that Vera's sister turns to Mrs. K for help. So do the police but when her conclusions conflict with theirs they tell her to butt out. This case has more twists than a loaf of challah. And with a homicidal scoundrel on the loose Mrs. K has to act fast or she might be the guest of honor at the Home's next memorial service. Praise for A Pain in the Tushis A pure joy to read. This book oozes with charm humor and mystery. Socrates Book Reviews A relaxing cozy mystery as comfortable as a warm knitted shawl on a cold winter night. Mallory Heart Reviews It is a treat to read about Rose and Ida as they sleuth making a list of suspects working out the motives and opportunities always keeping in mind WWSD What would Sherlock do. Jane Reads Ironia Intriguing and engaging. This cozy mystery is wonderfully well-written full of humor intrigue and plot twists. I love the style of this writer. LibriAmorMiei One of the most enjoyable things about A Pain in the Tushis was the narration of the story by Ida. She defers all the brains to Mrs. K but in reality Ida's voice is the humorous glue that holds the whole story together. Bubble Bath Books Praise for Mark Reutlinger's Mrs. Kaplan and the Matzoh Ball of Death Is there kosher food in jail. These two heroines have gotten themselves in quite a pickle. Well it's a matzoh ball mess really. Too deliciously funny. Rita Mae Brown bestselling author of Nine Lives to Die.

The Gendered Motorcycle Esperanza Miyake, 2018-06-14 What happens to gender at 120mph Are Harley Davidsons more masculine than Yamahas The Gendered Motorcycle answers such questions through a critical examination of motorcycles in film advertising and television Whilst bikers and biker cultures have been explored previously the motorcycle itself has remained largely under theorised especially in relation to gender Esperanza Miyake reveals how representations of motorcycles can produce different gendered bodies identities spaces and practices This interdisciplinary book offers new and critical ways to think about gender and motorcycles and will interest scholars and students of gender technology and visual cultures as well as motorcycle industry practitioners and motorcycle enthusiasts

CAN I BE THE MAN? King Naib, 2021-04-26 Can I be the MAN A letter from US to You is exactly what the title implies It is a letter written on behalf of African American men in an attempt to put an end to the feud between male and female so the duality of relationships can be restored It addresses some hard conversations that need to be discussed within African American culture and relationships It allows men to be naked and unashamed in revealing their failures but also identifying some of the deep seeded desires African American men have for women From a much needed apology from men to getting a better understanding of the inner workings of the heart of men to acknowledging that there are no good men only men striving to be good this work will touch the heart and mind of every woman that is currently in or desires to be in a harmonious relationship with an African American man By the end of the book it will stimulate a much needed dialog between African American men and women to bring about peace within their relationships and ultimately restore the fabric of their homes With the duality of African American relationships restored their families will be restored which in turn will repair their communities and will allow the needed unity within African American culture to stand together in solidarity This work started out a conversation with a few of my elders over a game of spades From there it became a poem and now has blossomed into a full body of work I have come to learn that I can express myself much better through writing than I can verbally It was originally my desire to write the words that I have been struggling to be able to communicate in my own relationships Over the course of time I have come to realize that there are many men just like me that feel the same way yet don't know how to communicate their emotions and thoughts This work is for the men that look into our communities and see the need for men but have watched and been unable to ask women the simplest of questions Can I be the MAN This work will be controversial in many ways but will ultimately have the desired effect of healing within our culture
