Grade 9 Results 2014:

Improving Primary Mathematics Education, Teaching and Learning Mellony Graven, Hamsa Venkat, 2017-01-19 This book focuses on how to improve the teaching and learning of primary level mathematics education within resource constrained contexts. It builds on two large numeracy projects within South Africa which speak to broader global concerns and highlight how research and development not only enables one to meet ethical imperatives but also explore how further interventions can be developed. Teacher and research communities must work together to create mutually beneficial relationships and establish a cohesive understanding of the requirements of primary mathematics education. Minerals Yearbook Mines

Bureau, Geological Survey, Interior Department, 2018-04-19 The region of Europe and Central Eurasia defined in this volume encompasses territory that extends from the Atlantic Coast of Europe to the Pacific Coast of the Russian Federation. It includes the British Isles, Iceland, and Greenland, a self-governing part of the Kingdom of Denmark. Included are mineral commodity outlook tables plus global overview research for particularly commodities within a specific region. Countries are presented throughout the text. Manufacturers of these metals and commodities along with trade brokers that may specialize in imports and exports, political scientists and economists may also be interested in this volume. Students pursuing research on specific metals and mineral commodities for world economy courses may be interested in this volume. Minerals

Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education, International Education Reform, and Language Education. Viet Nam Secondary Education Sector Assessment, Strategy, and Road Map Asian Development Bank, 2020-02-01 This report provides an assessment of Viet Nam's secondary education sector including technical and vocational education training programs. The report reviews sector achievements and challenges as well as the Government of Viet Nam's strategy and policies. It also outlines how the Asian Development Bank (ADB) and other development partners have contributed to the sector. The report provides recommendations on measures to boost access to secondary education and to improve its overall quality and management.

Informatics in Schools: Improvement of Informatics Knowledge and Perception Andrej Brodnik, Françoise Tort, 2016-09-21. This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Informatics in Schools: Situation, Evolution and Perspectives (ISSEP 2016) held in Münster, Germany, in October 2015. The 17 full papers presented together with 1 invited talk were carefully reviewed and selected from 50 submissions. The focus of the conference was on following topics: sustainable education in informatics for pupils of all ages; connecting informatics lessons to the students' everyday lives; teacher education in informatics or computer science; and research on informatics or computer science in schools. Empirical, qualitative, quantitative, theory building, research methods, comparative studies, transferability of methods and results from other disciplines.

Education in Cambodia Vincent McNamara, Martin Hayden, 2022-05-14. This book is the most comprehensive account yet published about the education system in Cambodia. It covers all system levels and draws upon the knowledge and insights of a wide range of leading Cambodian and foreign scholars. The book focuses on how the system has developed and is making progress. Significant achievements over the past two decades are evident, but many problems remain, including the poor quality of teaching, research, and institutional management. Underfunding is an ongoing obstacle, but so too is a bureaucratic culture of resistance to change, a history of weak governance, and an anti-reform sentiment deriving from a teacher-centred and exam-driven curriculum. Achieving international standards must now be the system's highest priority. To this end, the system must rid itself of conservatism, complacency, and manipulation by parochial vested interests.

Lessons from the Kalahari Monica Hendricks, 2020-05-05. Lessons from the Kalahari: Tracking Teachers' Professional Development explores how Northern Cape teachers who were enrolled in a Bachelor of Education in-service course responded to three professional development modules specialising in mathematics education, English language teaching, and Foundation Phase teaching, respectively. Mainly through fine-grained analyses of their classroom practice, the studies in this volume demonstrate how these teachers grappled with new content knowledge and pedagogical innovations to improve the quality of teaching in their classrooms. The chapters include case studies that range across a variety of pedagogical topics, including mathematics and English teachers' classroom practices, involvement of parents of Foundation Phase learners, and learners' autonomous mathematics learning. The book makes an original, empirically based contribution to the understanding of the challenges confronting primary and secondary school teachers in remote rural parts of Northern Cape province, South Africa.

Research for Educational Change Jill Adler, Anna Sfard, 2016-06-17. Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice. Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education, it argues that while research-generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching, the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research     Monitoring Student Achievement in the 21st Century Heidi Harju-Luukkainen, Nele

McElvany, Justine Stang, 2020-04-01 This book draws together leading student assessment academics from across Europe exploring student monitoring policies and practices in a range of countries across 22 chapters The chapters in the first part offer a broad overview on student assessment covering history and current status aims and approaches as well as methodological challenges of international student assessment The second part presents country specific chapters provide an in depth look examining country specific policy and practices and findings of national and or international assessments Findings are critically discussed and recommendations are made for further development of each country s assessment context The book shows similarities and differences within the educational assessment landscape as well as complexity and similarities in assessment policy documents and strategies Given the globalized world we live in today this book fills a need in the higher educational context and is intended for policy makers in different countries as well     Digest of Education Statistics ,2006 Contains information on a variety of subjects within the field of education statistics including the number of schools and colleges enrollments teachers graduates educational attainment finances Federal funds for education libraries international education and research and development     The Wiley Handbook on Violence in Education Harvey

Researching Religious Education: Classroom Processes and Outcomes Friedrich Schweitzer, Reinhold Boschki, 2017 The question of how research on structures and outcomes in Religious Education can be carried out successfully is of current interest in many countries Next to the more traditional historical analytical and more recently international comparative approaches empirical research in religious education has been able to establish itself as a major approach to this field Moreover the contemporary discussion about comparative evaluation in schools has raised a number of questions which also refer to Religious Education What competences can pupils acquire in this subject Does Religious Education really support the acquisition and development of the competences aspired Are there differences in this respect between different forms of Religious Education or between different approaches to teaching With contributions from eight European countries the volume brings together approaches and research experiences that try to follow this lead by offering new and empirically based perspectives for the future improvement of teaching and learning in this school subject Whoever is interested in improving the practice of Religious Education then will not be able to bypass the question of researching processes and outcomes an insight which also refers to a small but growing number of studies in this field which can be identified in several countries

Visualisation and Epistemological Access to Mathematics Education in Southern Africa Marc Schäfer, 2023-04-27 This book demonstrates that using visualisation processes in mathematics education can help to enhance teaching and learning and bridge the inequality gap that exists between well resourced and under resourced schools in Southern Africa Drawing on classroom research conducted in the Southern African region it examines how epistemological access in a context of gross inequality can be constructively addressed by providing research based solutions and recommendations The book outlines the visualisation process as an integral but often overlooked process of mathematics teaching and learning It goes beyond the traditional understanding of visualisation processes such as picture forming and using tools and considers visualisation processes that are semiotic in nature and includes actions such as gestures in combination with language It adds value to the visualisation in mathematics education research discourse and deliberation in Africa With a unique focus on Southern Africa and open avenues for further research and collaboration in the region it will be a highly relevant reading for researchers academics and post graduate students of mathematics education comparative education and social justice education
