EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all

UNESCO,2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

Researching Educational Governance: Realizing UN 2030 Agenda and Beyond H.C. Pokhriyal, B.S. Nagi, M.C. Sati, Padmakar Mishra, R.P. Juyal and A.S. Khullar,2023-01-01

Achieving the lofty Goal 4 of the UNSDGs which aims to ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all will require the entire education system to be reconfigured a fact as aptly underlined in the National Education Policy 2020 of India This would essentially entail putting in place a very effective educational governance devised and formulated on the basis of cutting edge research outputs Three Volumes of the present book is a modest yet maiden attempt to comprehend and unfold the blending of diverse research methodologies and amply demonstrate through empirical findings that innovative policies and interventions curated on the basis of this approach of research can ensure quality education Governance emerges as one of the core areas for research Therefore Volume I provides a wide canvas of governance in general and educational governance in particular for research along with a unique opportunity to elaborate both the theory and practice of Quantitative Qualitative and Participatory Methodologies in researching governance that is the frontier challenge looking for suitable answers Volume II uniquely comprehends multiple aspects of quality in dynamic and wider perspectives as perceived by the primary stakeholders including community Refreshing insight into the quality perspectives of educational governance will facilitate the researchers to explore innovative interventions in respective areas of human development Community is the third constituent of governance along with the state and the market Therefore Volume III explores a futuristic vision of community governance leading to quality education

Also an attempt has been made to critically appraise the provisioning of community governance including the local self governments as well as free and compulsory elementary education The Book is a live comprehension of the conceptual framework of research and methods along with handling of research problems at the ground It is like explaining how to by giving suitable case studies conducted by the authors on educational governance It is hoped that the three Volumes will be an exciting learning experience that would enable us to address researching challenges over which the public policy makers researchers development administrators planners and students may build their concepts logical structures and planned interventions facilitating the achievement of effective educational governance at micro level ensuring quality education in the coming decades

Shojo, Harsha Aturupane, Sangeeta Goyal, Dhushyanth Raju, 2017-06-16 A country's education system plays a pivotal role in promoting economic growth and shared prosperity Sri Lanka has enjoyed high school attainment and enrollment rates for several decades However it still faces major challenges in the education sector and these challenges undermine the country's inclusive growth goal and its ambition to become a competitive upper middle income country The authors of Sri Lanka Education Sector Assessment Achievements Challenges and Policy Options offer a thorough review of Sri Lanka's education sector from early childhood education through higher education With this book they attempt to answer three questions How is Sri Lanka's education system performing especially with respect to participation rates learning outcomes and labor market outcomes How can the country address the challenges at each stage of the education process taking into account both country and international experience and also best practices Which policy actions should Sri Lanka make a priority for the short and medium term The authors identify the most critical constraints on performance and present strategic priorities and policy options to address them To attain inclusive growth and become globally competitive Sri Lanka needs to embark on integrated reforms across all levels of education These reforms must address both short term skill shortages and long term productivity As Sri Lanka moves up the development ladder the priorities of primary secondary and postsecondary education must be aligned to meet the increasingly complex education and skill requirements Economic And Administrative

Sciences Volume I Azmi YALÇIN, 2018-11-20 Critical Mineral Resources of the United States K. J. Schulz, John H. DeYoung, Robert R. Seal, Dwight C. Bradley, 2017 As the importance and dependence of specific mineral commodities increase so does concern about their supply The United States is currently 100 percent reliant on foreign sources for 20 mineral commodities and imports the majority of its supply of more than 50 mineral commodities Mineral commodities that have important uses and face potential supply disruption are critical to American economic and national security However a mineral commodity's importance and the nature of its supply chain can change with time a mineral commodity that may not have been considered critical 25 years ago may be critical today and one considered critical today may not be so in the future The U S Geological Survey has produced this volume to describe a select group of mineral commodities currently critical to our economy and security For each mineral commodity covered the authors provide a comprehensive look at 1 the commodity's use 2 the geology and global distribution of the mineral deposit types that account for the present and possible future supply of the commodity 3 the current status of production reserves and resources in the United States and globally and 4 environmental considerations related to the commodity's production from different types of mineral deposits The volume describes U S critical mineral resources in a global context for no country can be self sufficient for all its mineral commodity needs and the United States will always rely on global mineral commodity supply chains This volume provides the scientific understanding of critical mineral resources required for informed decisionmaking by those responsible for ensuring that the United States has a secure and sustainable supply of mineral commodities Sustainable English Language

Teacher Development at Scale Ian Eyres, Tom Power, Robert McCormick, 2018-09-06 This book offers a thorough and comprehensive review of the lessons learnt from the award winning English in Action English language teacher development programme which ran in government primary and secondary schools across Bangladesh from 2008 to 2017 Over the course of nine years the programme involved 51 000 teachers and 20 million school students demonstrably raising standards of teachers classroom practice and students English language attainment and won the British Council ELTON Award for Local innovation 2013 and Times Higher Education Award for International Impact 2107 The sixteen chapters explore the programme in detail looking at both the successes and the challenges encountered throughout its course including the strategies used to address the challenges The key innovative factors of the programme include a positive choice to build on the existing context such as the lives and experiences of local teachers and the demands of a nationally determined curriculum teacher learning taking place in the teachers own classrooms a focus on learning the how of communicative language teaching through reflective practice and peer support the use within a carefully constructed pedagogy of affordable readily available mobile phone technology the use of mediated authentic video a model of teacher development at very large scale that provided a successful alternative to the cascade model a partnership with government institutions to ensure that improved practices are maintained beyond the life of the Programme
