Journal of the National Cancer Institute ,1990 Universities Handbook ,2014 Music Education for Social Change Juliet Hess, 2019-05-22 Music Education for Social Change Constructing an Activist Music Education develops an activist music education rooted in principles of social justice and anti oppression Based on the interviews of 20 activist musicians across the United States and Canada the book explores the common themes perceptions and philosophies among them positioning these activist musicians as catalysts for change in music education while raising the question amidst racism and violence targeted at people who embody difference how can music education contribute to changing the social climate Music has long played a role in activism and resistance By drawing upon this rich tradition educators can position activist music education as part of a long term response to events as a crucial initiative to respond to ongoing oppression and as an opportunity for youth to develop collective expressive and critical thinking skills This emergent activist music education like activism pushing toward social change focuses on bringing people together expressing experiences and identifying and challenging oppressions Grounded in practice with examples integrated throughout the text Music Education for Social Change is an imperative and urgent consideration of what may be possible through music and music education

Complex Problem Solving Beyond the Psychometric Approach Wolfgang Schoppek, Joachim Funke, Magda Osman, Annette Kluge, 2018-09-28 Complex problem solving CPS and related topics such as dynamic decision making DDM and complex dynamic control CDC represent multifaceted psychological phenomena In abroad sense CPS encompasses learning decision making and acting in complex and dynamic situations Moreover solutions to problems that people face in such situations are often generated in teams or groups This adds another layer of complexity to the situation itself because of the emerging issues that arise from the social dynamics of group interactions This framing of CPS means that it is not a single construct that can be measured by using a particular type of CPS task e g minimal complex system tests which is a view taken by the psychometric community The proposed approach taken here is that because CPS is multifaceted multiple approaches need to be taken to fully capture and understand what it is and how the different cognitive processes associated with it complement each other Thus this Research Topic is aimed at showcasing the latest work in the fields of CPS as well as DDM and CDC that takes a holist approach to investigating and theorizing about these abilities The collection of articles encompasses conceptual approaches as well as experimental and correlational studies involving established or new tools to examine CPS DDM and CDC This work contributes to answering questions about what strategies and what general knowledge can be transferred from one type of complex and dynamic situation to another what learning conditions result in transferable knowledge and skills and how these features can be trained
