Pedagogy in Poverty Ursula Hoadley,2017-08-09 As South Africa transitioned from apartheid to democracy changes in the political landscape as well as educational agendas and discourse on both a national and international level shaped successive waves of curriculum reform over a relatively short period of time Using South Africa as a germane example of how curriculum and pedagogy can interact and affect educational outcomes Pedagogy in Poverty explores the potential of curricula to improve education in developing and emerging economies worldwide and ultimately to reduce inequality Incorporating detailed empirical accounts of life inside South African classrooms this book is a much needed contribution to international debate surrounding optimal curriculum and pedagogic forms for children in poor schools Classroom level responses to curriculum policy reforms reveal some implications of the shifts between a radical progressive approach and traditional curriculum forms Hoadley focuses on the crucial role of teachers as mediators between curriculum and pedagogy and explores key issues related to teacher knowledge by examining the teaching of reading and numeracy at the foundational levels of schooling Offering a data rich historical sociology of curriculum and pedagogic change this book will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education sociology of education curriculum studies educational equality and school reform and the policy and politics of education

Research on Reasoning with Data and Statistical Thinking: International Perspectives Gail F. Burrill,Leandro de Oliveria Souza,Enriqueta Reston,2023-07-21 This book is derived from selected papers from the Fourteenth International Congress on Mathematical Education Topic Study Group 12 Teaching and Learning Statistics It describes recent research on curriculum pedagogy and outreach initiatives from countries as diverse as Brazil Chile Columbia Denmark Germany the Netherlands Spain Sweden Thailand Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States The book has a focus on the use of data in the teaching and learning of statistics across grade levels and begins with an overview of the status of statistics education and the use of data from seven different countries across the continents and the link between research and practice in those countries Because it contains specific examples of the research for example on the ways children learn the choice and implementation of tasks or the role of informal inference the book will be a great resource to those interested and involved in the teaching of statistics curriculum developers and statistics education researchers Condemned Again Skhumbuzo Letlaka,2015-01-31 The work was conceived over a number of years and it relates to the manner in which African leaders govern their countries after independence Its main focus is on the South African politics under apartheid where racism and racial segregation was the order of the day and where white supremacy implied black inferiority It looks at a number of issues including humiliation and brutality that led to the United Nations declaring apartheid as crime against humanity It focuses on the processes leading to the build up of pressures that forced the racist government to accede to the demands of the international community and also bow to internal pressures which were exerted by the South African people themselves This book is written by a comrade who grew up in the township of Clermont a student of politics under the tutelage of Archie Gumede a man who rubbed shoulders with radicals such as Patrick Terror Lekota and Diliza Mji amongst others and a staunch Catholic whose wedding was conducted by Archbishop Denis Hurley Skhumbuzo Letlaka is a product of a township struggle stay aways consumer boycotts strikes school boycotts street committees and their tight discipline kangaroo courts and the application of the Mandela Plan Inquiry-Based Science in the Primary Classroom Garima Bansal,Umesh Ramnarain,2023-06-20 The chapters in this book represent a cross section of research conducted in inquiry based science education at primary levels of schooling in international contexts that include school settings in Australia India Singapore South Africa Turkey Northern Ireland and the United States The book includes empirical studies on the role of inquiry based learning in advancing students conceptual understanding and modelling proficiency students understandings about the nature of scientific inquiry classroom studies on teachers enactment of inquiry based learning teachers facilitation of classroom discourse for inquiry based learning and co teaching in developing teachers in adopting an inquiry based pedagogy It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Education 3 13 Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr.Montfort Mlachila,Tlhalefang Moeletsi,2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa s education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not Active

Learning ,2022-12-14 This book provides theoretical answers applied methodological models and didactic experiences that seek to reflect and analyze the potentialities and challenges of the active learning concept in STEAM disciplines and social sciences education It also contributes to the understanding intervention and resolution of contemporary social problems and to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals through the design implementation and evaluation of educational programs that incorporate integrated active learning as one of its explanatory axes
