Burning Daylight Jack London, 2015-10-06 Burning Daylight is a novel by Jack London published in 1910 which was one of the best selling books of that year and it was London s best selling book in his lifetime The novel takes place in the Yukon Territory in 1893 The main character nicknamed Burning Daylight was the most successful entrepreneur of the Alaskan Gold Rush The story of the main character was partially based upon the life of Oakland entrepreneur Borax Smith The novel was subsequently filmed as a First National movie starring Milton Sills with Doris Kenyon Chapter I It was a quiet night in the Shovel At the bar which ranged along one side of the large chinked log room leaned half a dozen men two of whom were discussing the relative merits of spruce tea and lime juice as remedies for scurvy They argued with an air of depression and with intervals of morose silence The other men scarcely heeded them In a row against the opposite wall were the gambling games The crap table was deserted One lone man was playing at the faro table The roulette ball was not even spinning and the gamekeeper stood by the roaring red hot stove talking with the young dark eyed woman comely of face and figure who was known from Juneau to Fort Yukon as the Virgin Three men sat in at stud poker but they played with small chips and without enthusiasm while there were no onlookers Cursed Earth Asylum

David Bishop,2015-08-12 Judge Chung sobbed bitter tears running down her face He killed them all of them she said Who killed them McGruder demanded Dredd Twenty Years ago the Justice Department built an asylum called Erebus to house the surviving atrocities from early experiments with cloning eugenics and psi enhancement The inmates were grotesque disfigured beyond belief One of them was evil beyond imagining Two weeks ago Judge Dredd led a Hotdog Run into the Cursed Earth the only survivor returned to accuse him of murder Now a group of Judges is sent to find him and bring him back alive or dead Is Dredd a traitor Perhaps the answer lies in Erebus where the inmates have taken over the asylum and madness is no longer just a state of mind Dying Days

Gillian Long,2015-03-06 When Matt Reid sets out to find the truth about his biological father he doesn t expect to find family entanglements or the strange and unpredictable Australian woman whom he can t seem to erase from his mind Saving Farmland

Nathalie Chambers,Robin Alys Roberts,Sophie Wooding,2015-06-15 When Nathalie Chambers and her husband David first took over Madrona Farm 27 acres on southern Vancouver Island with a deep history they never thought their small scale agricultural business would blossom into an international political act As pressures from heirs land developers and industrial farmers grew alongside their rows of organically produced food the Chambers took action Considered by many to be revolutionary and by some to be rebellious their story opened many eyes to the future of food Saving Farmland introduces readers to stories of lost farmland and bees saving lives It shows how sustainability ecosystems and biodiversity transcend the paradox of our own man made losses Saving Farmland describes overcoming obstacles choosing models identifying vital farmland building community and fundraising Concluding stories of commonly shared land international trusts regained farmland and several heroes provide ongoing inspiration This practical book teems with fascinating history and facts Saving Farmland will help us all support local farming and sustainable land development so we can indulge in good eating forever The Rope of Gold

Roy J. Snell,2015-05-01 Outdoorsman and amateur sleuth Johnny Thompson is at it again in this thrilling mystery tale for younger readers Set in and around Haiti this case involves a long sought after treasure known as the Rope of Gold the pursuit of which has brought about a great deal of misery and destruction Can Johnny end the curse A Land Made from Water

Robert R. Crifasi,2015-10-29 A Land Made from Water chronicles how the appropriation and development of water and riparian resources in Colorado changed the face of the Front Range an area that was once a desert and is now an irrigated oasis suitable for the habitation and support of millions of people This comprehensive history of human intervention in the Boulder Creek and Lefthand Creek valleys explores the complex interactions between environmental and historical factors to show how thoroughly the environment along the Front Range is a product of human influence Author Robert Crifasi examines the events that took place in nineteenth century Boulder County Colorado and set the stage for much of the water development that occurred throughout Colorado and the American West over the following century Settlers planned and constructed ditches irrigation systems and reservoirs initiated the seminal court decisions establishing the appropriation doctrine and instigated war to wrest control of the region from the local Native American population Additionally Crifasi places these river valleys in the context of a continent wide historical perspective By examining the complex interaction of people and the environment over time A Land Made from Water links contemporary issues facing Front Range water users to the historical evolution of the current water management system and demonstrates the critical role people have played in creating ecosystems that are often presented to the public as natural or native It will appeal to students scholars professionals and general readers interested in water history water management water law environmental management political ecology or local natural history
