

Chapter 24: Factors affecting location

 igbusiness.blogspot.com/2011/05/chapter-24-factors-affecting-location.html

Location of industry

The location of a business is considered when it starts-up or when its present location is unsatisfactory. The business's objectives as well as the conditions of the environment change, so the business may need to look for a new location once in a while.

There are many factors that affect the location of businesses, and these factors are different for each business sector. We'll take a look at them below.

Factors affecting the location of a manufacturing business

Production methods and location decisions

- Small scale: transport and location of suppliers are less important.
- Large scale: transport and location of suppliers are more important.

Market

- Need to be near to transport perishable goods.
- Need to be near to cut transportation expenses.

Raw materials/components

- Need to be near to transport perishable goods.
- Need to be near to cut transportation expenses.

External economies of scale

- How good nearby businesses are.
 - For maintenance of equipments.
 - For training workers, etc...

Availability of labour

- Wages of the labourers.
- How skilled they are.

Government influence

Cambridge IGCSE is the world's most popular international qualification for 14 to 16 year old. It is recognized by leading universities and employers worldwide and is an international passport to progression and success. Developed over 25 years ago, it is tried, tested and trusted by schools worldwide. This syllabus is designed for learners who are learning Mandarin Chinese as a foreign language. The aim is to develop an ability to use the language effectively for purposes of practical communication. The course is based on the linked language skills of listening, reading, speaking and writing, and these are built on as learners progress through their studies. Cambridge IGCSE Chinese aims to offer insights into the culture and civilization of countries where Mandarin Chinese is spoken, encouraging positive attitudes towards language learning and towards speakers of foreign languages.
