Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice in Africa J. Jarpa Dawuni, 2022-10-17

Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice edited by J Jarpa Dawuni propounds layered intersectionality as a paradigm for examining how gendered factors affect women's access to justice whether as judges or litigants Through intersectional and decolonial frameworks the contributors analyze the lived experiences of women and their access to justice by situating the courtroom as both a spatial and a temporal arena for seeking justice as litigants and for seeking access to the bench as judges This book examines patterns of mutually reinforcing discriminatory practices that women share based on common gender identities and depending on which identities are at play at a given point in time in both traditional and statutory courts The book provides recommendations for various justice sector providers

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today
