Karver: Failed Expectations Andrew Gilmour, 2014-12-14 Corporal John Karver has been in the Bazalonian military for the majority of his adult life John has never been the same after a tragic and horrific incident in his past during a necessary but terrible war Eight years later he is coping with his loss and living an empty life when a Colonel gives him a chance to enter back into the field as a one man black ops team Taking the opportunity to once again have a purpose and something to do John is sent to assassinate the leader of a troublesome drug cartel Completing his task no one could know what would happen next A new leader takes the helm of the cartel and starts prepping for a drug war with Bazalonia John must then travel to the remote region of Ch qechi in Equatoria to face this new drug lord and his fascination with mystical artifacts Specifically a spear that is said to have killed an ancient Mayan ruler the Demon King Akbal Imix otherwise known as The Night Crocodile John must battle his own demons from the past and the unusual strangeness of the Demon King s temple if he is going to come through this with his sanity intact To do this he must use whatever assistance he can to overcome the drug lord and the strange influence that the temple has over him What mysteries are hidden inside this unassuming temple How does this all relate to John s own dark history Uncover the answers in this modern action adventure tale with a fantasy twist

Small-Town Dreams John E. Miller, 2014-03-28 We live these days in a virtual nation of cities and celebrities dreaming a small town America rendered ever stranger by purveyors of nostalgia and dark visionaries from Sherwood Anderson to David Lynch And yet it is the small town that world of local character and neighborhood lore that dreamed the America we know today and the small town boy like those whose stories this book tells who made it real In these life stories beginning in 1890 with frontier historian Frederick Jackson Turner and moving up to the present with global shopkeeper Sam Walton a history of middle America unfolds as entrepreneurs and teachers like Henry Ford George Washington Carver and Walt Disney artists and entertainers like Thomas Hart Benton Grant Wood Carl Sandburg and Johnny Carson political figures like William McKinley William Jennings Bryan and Ronald Reagan and athletes like Bob Feller and John Wooden by turns engender and illustrate the extraordinary cultural shifts that have transformed the Midwest and through the Midwest the nation and the world Many of these men are familiar icons even Ford and Reagan certainly Ernie Pyle Sinclair Lewis James Dean and Lawrence Welk and others like artists Oscar Micheaux and John Steuart Curry economist Alvin Hansen and composer Meredith Willson less so But in their stories as John E Miller tells them all appear in a new light unique in their backgrounds and accomplishments united only in the way their lives reveal the persisting shaping power of place and particularly the Midwest on the cultural imagination and national consciousness In a thoroughly engaging style Miller introduces us to the small town Midwestern boys who became these all American characters privileging us with insights that pierce the public images of politicians and businessmen thinkers and entertainers alike From the smell of the farm the sounds and silences of hamlets and county seats the schoolyard athletics and classroom instruction and theatrical performance we follow these men to their moments of inspiration innovation and fame observing the workings of the small town past in their very different relationships with the larger world Their stories reveal in an intimate way how profoundly childhood experiences shape personal identity and how deeply place figures in the mapping of thought belief ambition and life s course Blue Sky Law Reporter Commerce Clearing House,1946 The Oxford Handbook of Treatment
