As a student of the University of the Pacific, I have been able to learn a lot about the history and culture of the Philippines. One of the most interesting things I have learned is about the traditional food of the Philippines, which is a mix of Spanish, American, and Filipino influences.

One of the most popular traditional Filipino dishes is Adobo, which is a meat dish that is marinated in a mixture of vinegar, soy sauce, and spices. It is a very flavorful and delicious dish that is often served with rice.

Another popular traditional Filipino dish is Lechon, which is a whole pig that is roasted over an open fire. It is a very delicious and popular dish that is often served at special occasions.
