

for the active engagement?	It's time for your writing. You've all helped me, not help yourselves. Give me a thumbs up if you have an idea for one thing you could write a nonfiction book about.
Link:	Please note, when we write nonfiction, or read books, we write about things we are an expert in. your goal today is to start writing right away about a topic you know about.
Independent Student Work Time & Teacher-Facilitated Small Group (30 minutes)	Students: begin writing their nonfiction books about a topic that they are an expert in. Teaching Point: use table conferences to reach many writers. Coach students to think about what they are writing and plan it out. Highlight the independent and productive strategies you catch writers using across the workshop. Ms Hochman: Brandon, Anthony Johnson, Edgar, London Ms Pickardo: Quana, Jasmine, Kameron, Victoria Ms Cocchiello: Noah, Kyril, Iren
Share with Partner/Class (15 minutes)	Have students bring their writing and writing folders to the rug. Writers, turn and show your partner how much you wrote today. To write nonfiction, you are going to have to learn from nonfiction authors, because that's what you will be, right? I mean, when you want to be a dancer, you watch "Dancing With The Stars". When you want to be a teacher, you watch the most fabulous teacher in the world (here). So let's end today by learning just a little bit about a few nonfiction authors. Introduce Seymour Chwast (writer of science books) and Gail Gibson (write about how things work, etc. Click) show their pictures and talk a little about each of them.
