Mining Tsar the Life And Times Of Leslie Urquhart:

Mining Tsar Kett Howard Kennedy, 1986-01 Reflecting Imperial Overstretch and New Realities Brian O'Sullivan, 2024-07-03 This book is the first comprehensive history of the British Trade Corporation which was constituted under a Royal Charter on 21st April 1917 Its charter was meant to last for sixty years but in 1926 after a turbulent existence of only nine years it was amalgamated with the Anglo Austrian Bank and absorbed into the Anglo International Bank The corporation together with its two main subsidiaries the Levant Company and the National Bank of Turkey conducted business not only in Britain but in Russia Turkey the Middle East and in Continental Europe Although the corporation was not an agent of empire it reflected Britain s imperialistic ambitions after the First World War As a result it invested in some of the most unstable regions of the world It was also severely affected by British foreign policy which was often misjudged and at times duplicitous resulting in serious damage to British trade Within five years of its launch the British Trade Corporation needed to be refinanced The economic downturn in the early 1920s and ongoing hostilities in Eastern Europe and the Near East meant that it struggled to survive Its difficulties reflected many of those faced by Britain in general after the war and the need to come to terms with the new realities of the post war world Despite its innovative attempt to address the perceived deficiencies in Britain s financial system especially in respect of industrial finance the British Trade Corporation has been largely ignored by financial historians Based on substantial archival research this book rectifies this neglect and makes an important contribution to the financial history of interwar Britain On Arbitration Samuel Wordsworth, Marie Veeder, 2023-08-29 This volume brings together the most important articles lectures and essays of Van Vechten Johnny Veeder a towering figure in the worlds of international commercial arbitration and arbitration between States and foreign investors As noted by Judge Stephen Schwebel in his introduction to the volume Johnny Veeder was unsurpassed as an arbitrator tribunal chairman expositor analyst and historian of international arbitration The writings in this collection address a wide range of topics in the field including the historical context of international arbitration and its influence on the modern day practice the role and responsibilities of the arbitrator and the principles upholding international arbitration The included works span the length of Johnny s career drawing on his extensive learning and practical engagement They analyse the past and present while asking prescient questions about arbitration s future in a changing global context The reader of Johnny s essays and other contributions will profit by his extraordinary legal insight and by the breadth and depth of his devotion to the arbitral process The volume also gives a sense of his humanity of his warmth and wit Loved by his colleagues his students and indeed all those who came to know him this volume is in celebration of the extraordinary achievements of this remarkable jurist teacher and human being International and Comparative Mineral Law and Policy Elizabeth Bastida, Thomas W. Waelde, Janeth Warden-Fernández, 2005-01-01 This book covers a broad spectrum of issues shaping the current paradigm of minerals sector governance The ultimate aim of the book is to understand trends and developments in mineral law and policy occurring at international regional cross border and in some selected cases at national level and also to identify some of the challenges lying ahead With these objectives in view the book brings together a representative selection of the most knowledgeable authors on the subject The contributions deal with a diverse range of issues tackled from interdisciplinary perspectives Topics are divided into five main chapters international and comparative aspects of mineral law actors and policies in the minerals industry investment prospects financial and fiscal issues sustainable development and regional outlooks The book aspires to serve as a useful reference for scholars practitioners students and all those with an interest in current developments in the areas reviewed Elizabeth Bastida is the Rio Tinto Research Fellow and the Director of the Mineral Law and Policy Programme at the Centre for Energy Petroleum Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee CEPMLP Dundee Thomas W Ide is the Professor of International Economic Natural Resources and Energy Law and was until 2001 the Executive Director of CEPMLP Dundee He currently runs TWA his private consultancy firm which provides advisory services in natural resources and energy law regulatory reform investment promotion state enterprise agency appraisal and restructuring privatisation contract assessment negotiation and dispute management Janeth Warden Fernandez is a Research and Teaching Fellow an advisor of the Mineral Law and Policy Programme and the Manager of the Distance Learning Programme at CEPMLP Dundee

The Prize Daniel Yergin, 2012-09-11 The Prize recounts the panoramic history of oil and the struggle for wealth power that has always surrounded oil This struggle has shaken the world economy dictated the outcome of wars and transformed the destiny of men and nations The Prize is as much a history of the twentieth century as of the oil industry itself The canvas of this history is enormous from the drilling of the first well in Pennsylvania through two great world wars to the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait and Operation Desert Storm The cast extends from wildcatters and rogues to oil tycoons and from Winston Churchill and Ibn Saud to George Bush and Saddam Hussein The definitive work on the subject of oil and a major contribution to understanding our century The Prize is a book of extraordinary breadth riveting excitement and great importance

The Race to Save the Romanovs Helen Rappaport, 2018-06-26 In this international bestseller investigating the murder of the Russian Imperial Family Helen Rappaport embarks on a quest to uncover the various plots and plans to save them why they failed and who was responsible The murder of the Romanov family in July 1918 horrified the world and its aftershocks still reverberate today In Putin's autocratic Russia the Revolution itself is considered a crime and its anniversary was largely ignored In stark contrast the centenary of the massacre of the Imperial Family was commemorated in 2018 by a huge ceremony attended by the Patriarch of the Russian Orthodox Church While the murders themselves have received major attention what has never been investigated in detail are the various plots and plans behind the scenes to save the family on the part of their royal relatives other governments and Russian monarchists loyal to the Tsar Rappaport refutes the claim that the fault lies entirely with King George V as has been the traditional view for the last century The responsibility for failing the Romanovs must be equally shared The question of asylum for the Tsar and his family was an extremely complicated issue that presented enormous political logistical and geographical challenges at a time when Europe was still at war Like a modern day detective Helen Rappaport draws on new and never before seen sources from archives in the US Russia Spain and the UK creating a powerful account of near misses and close calls with a heartbreaking conclusion With its up to the minute research The Race to Save the Romanovs is sure to replace outdated classics as the final word on the fate of the Romanovs

Consolidated Gold Fields in Australia Robert Porter, 2020-04-29 Consolidated Gold Fields was a major British mining house founded by Cecil Rhodes in 1892 Diversifying from its South African gold interests the company invested widely during the following century This included investments in the Western Australian gold sector from the 1920s and exploration and mining activities elsewhere in Australia and the Territory of New Guinea In the 1960s Consolidated Gold Fields Australia CGFA was formed CGFA had ambitious plans and the financial backing from London to establish itself as one of the main diversified mining companies in Australia Investments were held in the historic Mount Lyell Mining and Railway Company in Renison and it was one of the first groups to develop iron ore deposits in the Pilbara of Western Australia It also acquired a major interest in mineral sands While the London based Consolidated Gold Fields ceased to exist in 1989 taken over and dismembered by renowned corporate raider Hanson Plc its Australian subsidiary renamed Renison Goldfields Consolidated RGC continued for another nine years as a diversified mining group before it suffered its own corporate demise facilitated by Hanson CGFA and RGC were important participants in Australia's post World War II mining sector This book is a history of a once great British mining finance house and its investments in Australia Consolidated Gold Fields had a rich and broad history in Australia its ultimate fate did not demonstrate its potential as an Australian mining company

Outskirts of Empire John Fisher, 2018-09-03 Outskirts of Empire Studies in British Power Projection investigates the substructure of Britain's interests in the Near East and beyond during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Essays address themes in British power projection in a geographically wide area encompassing parts of the Ottoman Empire Morocco and Abyssinia illuminating interlinking elements of Britain's power and presence through commerce religion consular activity expatriates travel and exploration and technology Through careful investigation of the interface of these themes the book develops a deeper sense of Britain's presence in the Near East and contiguous areas and highlights the network of Britons who were required to sustain that presence three volume set presents papers from the first collaborative global metallurgy conference focused exclusively on extractive topics including business and economic issues Contributions examine new developments in foundational extractive metallurgy topics and techniques and present the latest research and insights on emerging technologies and issues that are shaping the global extractive metallurgy industry The book is organized around the following main themes hydrometallurgy pyrometallurgy sulfide flotation and extractive metallurgy markets and economics From Empire to Eurasia Sergey Glebov, 2017-05-15 The Eurasianist movement was launched in the 1920s by a group of young Russian migrants who had recently emerged from years of fighting and destruction Drawing on the cultural fermentation of Russian modernism in the arts and literature as well as in politics and scholarship the movement sought to reimagine the former imperial space in the wake of Europe's Great War The Eurasianists argued that as an heir to the nomadic empires of the steppes Russia should follow a non European path of development In the context of rising Nazi and Soviet powers the Eurasianists rejected liberal democracy and sought alternatives to Communism and capitalism Deeply connected to the Russian cultural and scholarly milieu Eurasianism played a role in the articulation of the structuralist paradigm in interwar Europe However the movement was not as homogenous as its name may suggest Its founders disagreed on a range of issues and argued bitterly about what weight should be accorded to one or another idea in their overall conception of Eurasia In this first English language history of the Eurasianist movement based on extensive archival research Sergey Glebov offers a historically grounded critique of the concept of Eurasia by interrogating the context in which it was first used to describe the former Russian Empire This definitive study will appeal to students and scholars of Russian and European history and culture The Forgotten Fifties John Murphy, Judith Smart, 1997 Some of Australia's leading historians present new perspectives on social and cultural life in the 1950s The 1950s is usually treated in the popular media as a metaphor for an Australia that was complacent monocultural banal and domesticated On the other hand historical writing about the decade has long been dominated by accounts of political and foreign policy conflict the Labor Split the Cold War and the seemingly endless long summer of Robert Menzies This collection assembles some of Australia's leading historians to present new perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia Between Two Empires A. Holly Shissler, 2002-11-21 Ahmet Agaoglu's life and writings reflect huge 20th century historical events such as revolutions in Russia in 1905 and 1917 in Ottoman Turkey in 1908 World War I the Turkish

War of Independence and the establishment of Azerbaijan His life is a mirror of the tangled politics in a region where his role in establishing the Republic of Azerbaijan was decisive This work is based on Agaoglu s journalistic output and fieldwork in the Caucasus as well as literature of the period Making the Mount Isa Mine, 1923-1933 Donald Alexander Berkman,1996 "Red Ted" Ross Fitzgerald,1994 E G Theodore one of Australia s most enterprising and unusual political figures was Treasurer and Premier of Queensland and later Federal Treasurer and Deputy Prime Minister of Australia in the Scullin Labor government British and American Commercial Relations with Soviet Russia, 1918-1924 Christine A. White,2017-03-01 White reassesses Anglo American trade with Soviet Russia immediately following the Bolshevik Revolution to show that unlike diplomatic relations commercial ties were not severed by ideological differences She argues that British and American trade with Russia resumed soon after the Bolsheviks rise to power and that this period of trade had a significant effect on future commerce Originally published in 1992 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Man from Asarco Donald Chaput,1992 International Bibliography of Business History Francis Goodall,Terry Gourvish,Steven Tolliday,2013-12-16 The field of business history has changed and grown dramatically over the last few years There is less interest in the traditional company centred approach and more concern about the wider business context With the growth of multi national corporations in the 1980s international and inter firm comparisons have gained in importance In addition there has been a move towards improving links with mainstream economic financial and social history through techniques and outlook The International Bibliography of Business History brings all of the strands together and provides the user with a comprehensive guide to the literature in the field The Bibliography is a unique volume which covers the depth and breadth of research in business history This exhaustive volume has been compiled by a team of subject specialists from around the world under the editorship of three prestigious business historians Foreign Direct Investment in Kazakhstan E.K. Dosmukhamedov,2002-11-25 The collapse of the centrally planned systems of the former Soviet Union undoubtedly stands out as one of the most important global events of the twentieth century The transformation from a centralized economic system to a market system created major opportunities for Western corporations to enter markets that had formerly been closed to them In this book E K Dosmukhamedov employs a distinctive approach to the study of post communist transition by analyzing Foreign Direct Investment FDI from a political legal and economic standpoint Kazakhstan the second largest country of the former USSR is used as a case study to illustrate the role of FDI in restructuring the economy of the former Soviet Union countries in the Post Communist era Who's who in Australia ,2002
