Minority Report Utopia Or Distopia:

The Postworld In-Between Utopia and Dystopia Katarzyna Ostalska, Tomasz Fisiak, 2021-12-29 This collection of essays offers global perspectives on feminist utopia and dystopia in speculative literature film and art working from a range of intersectional approaches to examine key works and genres in both their specific cultural context and a wider global epistemological critical background The international diverse contributions including a Foreword by Gregory Claeys draw upon posthumanism speculative realism speculative feminism object oriented ontology new materialisms and post Anthropocene studies to propose alternative perspectives on gender environment as well as alternate futures and pasts rendered in fiction Instead of binary divisions into utopia vs dystopia the collection explores genres transcending this dichotomy scrutinising the oeuvre of both established and emerging writers directors and critics This is a rich and unique collection suitable for scholars and students studying feminist literature media cultural studies and women s and gender studies

Decoding Digital Culture with Science Fiction Alan N. Shapiro, 2024-06-04 How do digital media technologies affect society and our lives Through the cultural theory hypotheses of hyper modernism hyperreality and posthumanism Alan N Shapiro investigates the social impact of Virtual Augmented Reality AI social media platforms robots and the Brain Computer Interface His examination of concepts of Jean Baudrillard and Katherine Hayles as well as films such as Blade Runner 2049 Ghost in the Shell Ex Machina and the TV series Black Mirror suggests that the boundary between science fiction narratives and the real world has become indistinct Science fictional thinking should be advanced as a principal mode of knowledge for grasping the world and digitalization

Utopian and Dystopian Writing for Children and Young Adults Carrie Hintz, Elaine Ostry, 2013-10-11 This volume examines a variety of utopian writing for children from the 18th century to the present day defining and exploring this new genre in the field of children s literature The original essays discuss thematic conventions and present detailed case studies of individual works All address the pedagogical implications of work that challenges children to grapple with questions of perfect or wildly imperfect social organizations and their own autonomy The book includes interviews with creative writers and the first bibliography of utopian fiction for children

Hothouse Utopia

Ryan Gunderson, 2021-10-29 What is to be done when the future is already ablaze With the international spread of right wing populism widening inequalities precarious forms of labor becoming normative surveillance capitalism and a worsening ecological crisis the future is bleak One issue in particular the likelihood of catastrophic climate change coupled with the lack of a global movement with the organization and vision to effectively challenge our suicidal social order yields the crushing awareness that future generations will be trapped in prehistory one in which humanity continues to be dominated by its own creations instead of shaping the historical process in line with reason Expanding upon the ideas of Theodor W Adorno Ernst Bloch Lucien Goldmann and others Ryan Gunderson examines the modes of action and thought through which we react to the likelihood of a catastrophic future in ways that reproduce instead of challenge the status quo and how we can instead productively sustain the search for a better world against all odds The Already Dead Eric Cazdyn, 2012-04-16 This book considers how a culture of crisis management what Cazdyn calls the new chronic has come to dominate all aspects of contemporary life from biomedicine to economics to politics Drawing from his own experiences battling leukemia and the subsequent effects of his illness on the process of becoming a Canadian citizen Cazdyn unravels the logic of the new chronic where people find themselves suspended in a space between life and death Character and Dystopia Aaron S. Rosenfeld, 2020-07-08 This is the first extended study to specifically focus on character in dystopia Through the lens of the last man figure Character and Dystopia: The Last Men examines character development in Yevgeny Zamyatin's We Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go Fyodor Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four Nathanael West's A Cool Million David Mamet's Glengarry Glen Ross Octavia Butler's Parable of the Sower Lois Lowry's The Giver Michel Houellebecq's Submission Chan Koonchung's The Fat Years and Maggie Shen King's An Excess Male showing how in the 20th and 21st centuries dystopian nostalgia shades into reactionary humanism a last stand mounted in defense of forms of subjectivity no longer supported by modernity Unlike most work on dystopia that emphasizes dystopia's politics this book's approach grows out of questions of poetics What are the formal structures by which dystopian character is constructed How do dystopian characters operate differently than other characters within texts and upon the reader What is the relation between this character and other forms of literary character such as are found in romantic and modernist texts By reading character as crucial to the dystopian project the book makes a case for dystopia as a sensitive register of modern anxieties about subjectivity and its portrayal in literary works Utopia Matters Marinela Freitas, 2005 The Language of Dystopia Jessica Norledge, 2022-08-29 This book presents an extended account of the language of dystopia exploring the creativity and style of dystopian narratives and mapping the development of the genre from its early origins through to contemporary practice Drawing upon stylistic cognitive poetic and narratological approaches the work proposes a stylistic profile of dystopia arguing for a reader led discussion of genre that takes into account reader subjectivity and personal conceptualisations of prototypicality In examining and identifying those aspects of language that characterise dystopian narratives and the experience of reading dystopian fictions the work discusses in particular the manipulation and construction of dystopian languages the conceptualisation of dystopian worlds the reading of dystopian minds the projection of dystopian ethics the unreliability of dystopian refraction and the evolution and hybridity of the dystopian genre Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms Michael Macaluso,Kati Macaluso,2018-11-01 The canon as much an ideology as it is a body of texts perceived to be intrinsic to the high school English classroom has come under scrutiny for maintaining status quo narratives about whiteness masculinity heterosexuality ability and even those associated with American ideals of self reliance the good life and the self made man Teaching practices around these texts may also reinforce harmful practices and ways of thinking including those connected to notions of culture literary merit and methods of reading teaching and learning Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms offers innovative critical ways of reading thinking about and teaching canonical texts in 21st century classrooms Responding to the increasingly pluralized digitized global 21st century English classroom chapter authors make explicit the ideologies of a canonical text of focus while also elaborating a pedagogical approach that de centers the canon bridges past and present applies critical theory and celebrates the rich identities of 21st century readers In using this book teachers will be especially poised to take on the canon in their classroom and thus to open up their curricula to ideas values concerns and narratives beyond those embedded in the canonical texts Imagining Urban Complexity Frans-Willem Korsten,Anthony T. Albright,2024-07-30 Imagining Urban Complexity introduces passionate and critical perspectives on the link between the humanities and urban studies It emphasizes tropes media and genres as cultural techniques that shape complexity in urban environments by distributing affordances modes of sensing and modes of sense making Focusing on urban political and cultural dynamics in 24 global cities the book shows that urban environments are thematized in literature and art but are also entities that are shaped perceived interpreted and experienced through sense making techniques that have long been central concerns of the humanities These techniques the book argues activate a dialectic between urban imaginations and cancellations Tropes media and genres are aesthetically and politically powerful they propel imaginations and open up multiplicities of urban possibilities they naturalize actualized orders and they cancel alternatives The book moves between close readings of city spaces and more systemic and infrastructural approaches to urban environments providing tools and strategies that can be adapted and extended to understand urban complexity in different cultural and political contexts The book speaks to global audiences from a continental philosophical tradition It is relevant to undergraduates postgraduates and academic researchers in the fields of critical urban studies urban design comparative literature cultural studies cultural analysis ecocriticism political theory and ethics From Film Adaptation to Post-Celluloid Adaptation Costas Constandinides,2010-10-21 The main corpus of film adaptation thus far has focused on films based on canonical literature From Film Adaptation to Post Celluloid Adaptation takes the next logical step by discussing the emerging modes of film adaptation from older media to new mainly focusing on the computer generated reconstructions of popular narratives and characters along with other forms of convergence such as the Internet While New Media is a broad concept the book will concentrate on the ways digital technology is being used in the encoding of films and discuss the ways this shift can be debated from a theoretical perspective Though the discussion is framed through the new media lens the work will not exclude a broader understanding of New Media which refers to video games official websites and interactivity so as to examine how the visual style of contemporary films is dispersed across and influenced by other media Discussing films like Minority Report King Kong 300 and Wanted in relation to Film Adaptation theory the work aims to challenge and rework the definition of adaptation Autonomous Driving Markus Maurer,J. Christian Gerdes,Barbara Lenz,Hermann

Winner,2016-05-21 This book takes a look at fully automated autonomous vehicles and discusses many open questions How can autonomous vehicles be integrated into the current transportation system with diverse users and human drivers Where do automated vehicles fall under current legal frameworks What risks are associated with automation and how will society respond to these risks How will the marketplace react to automated vehicles and what changes may be necessary for companies Experts from Germany and the United States define key societal engineering and mobility issues related to the automation of vehicles They discuss the decisions programmers of automated vehicles must make to enable vehicles to perceive their environment interact with other road users and choose actions that may have ethical consequences The authors further identify expectations and concerns that will form the basis for individual and societal acceptance of autonomous driving While the safety benefits of such vehicles are tremendous the authors demonstrate that these benefits will only be achieved if vehicles have an appropriate safety concept at the heart of their design Realizing the potential of automated vehicles to reorganize traffic and transform mobility of people and goods requires similar care in the design of vehicles and networks By covering all of these topics the book aims to provide a current comprehensive and scientifically sound treatment of the emerging field of autonomous driving The Many Forms of Fear, Horror and Terror

,2020-09-25 This eBook records the proceedings of the 3rd Annual Fear Horror and Terror conference which was held at Mansfield College Oxford in September 2009 A group of academics from disparate subject areas including literature film studies religious studies social psychology and psychoanalysis came together to discuss fear horror and terror Blueprint,2002 Cultural Legal Studies of Science Fiction Alex Green,Mitchell Travis,Kieran Tranter,2024-10-28 This book presents and engages the world building capacity of legal theory through cultural legal studies of science and speculative fictions In these studies the contributors take seriously the legal world building of science and speculative fiction to reveal animate and critique legal wisdom juris prudence Following a common approach in cultural legal studies the contributors engage directly and in detail with specific cultural texts novels television films and video games in order to explore a range of possible legal futures The book is organized in three parts first the contextualisation of science and speculative fiction as jurisprudence second the temporality of law and legal theory and third the analysis of specific science and speculative fictions Throughout the contributors reveal the way in which law as nomos builds normative universes through the narration of a future This book will appeal to scholars and students with interests in legal theory cultural legal studies law and the humanities and law and literature

Dystopian States of America Matthew B. Hill, 2022-09-13 Dystopian States of America is a crucial resource that studies the impact of dystopian works on American society including ways in which they reflect our deep and persistent fears about environmental calamities authoritarian governments invasive technologies and human weakness Dystopian States of America provides students and researchers with an illuminating resource for understanding the impact and relevance of dystopian and apocalyptic works in contemporary American culture Through its wide survey of dystopian works in numerous forms and genres the book encourages readers to connect with these works of fiction and understand how the catastrophically grim or disquieting worlds they portray offer insights into our own current situation In addition to providing more than 150 encyclopedia articles on a large and representative sample of dystopian apocalyptic narratives in fiction film television and video games including popular works that often escape critical inquiry Dystopian States of America features a suite of critical essays on five themes war pandemics totalitarianism environmental calamity and technological overreach that serve as the foundation for most dystopian worlds of the imagination These offerings complement one another enabling readers to explore dystopian conceptions of America and the world from multiple perspectives and vantage points

Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur, 2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today's viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic

The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood Evdokia Stefanopoulou, 2023-07-27 The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood focuses on the American science fiction SF film during the period 2001 2020 in order to provide a theoretical mapping of the genre in the context of Conglomerate Hollywood Using a social semiotics approach in a systematic corpus of films the book argues that the SF film can be delineated by two semiotic squares the first one centering on the genre's more than human ontologies SF bodies and the second one focusing on its imaginative worlds SF worlds Based on this theoretical framework the book examines the genre in six cycles which are placed in their historical context and are analyzed in relation to cultural discourses such as technological embodiment race animal human relations environmentalism global capitalism and the techno scientific Empire By considering these cycles which include superhero films creature films space operas among others as expressions of the genre's basic oppositions the book facilitates the comparison and juxtaposition of films that have rarely been discussed in tandem offering a new perspective on the multiple articulations of the SF film in the new millennium Pre-crime Jude

McCulloch, Dean Wilson, 2015-07-24 Pre crime aims to pre-empt would-be criminals and predict future crime Although the term is borrowed from science fiction the drive to predict and pre-empt crime is a present-day reality This book critically explores this major twenty-first century development in crime and justice This first in-depth study of pre-crime defines and describes different types of pre-crime and compares it to traditional post-crime and crime risk approaches It analyses the rationales that underpin pre-crime as a response to threats particularly terrorism and shows how it is spreading to other areas It also underlines the historical continuities that prefigure the emergence of pre-crime as well as exploring the new technologies and forms of surveillance that claim the ability to predict crime and identify future criminals Through the use of examples and case studies it provides insights into how pre-crime generates the crimes it purports to counter providing compelling evidence of the problems that arise when we act as if we know the future and aim to control it through punishing disrupting or incapacitating those we predict might commit future crimes Drawing on literature from criminology law international relations security and globalization studies this book sets out a coherent framework for the continued study of pre-crime and addresses key issues such as terminology its links to past practices its likely future trajectories and its impact on security crime and justice It is essential reading for academics and students in security studies criminology counter-terrorism surveillance policing and law as well as practitioners and professionals in these fields
