Double Entry Journal

Important Passages	Why does this stand out to you? (What does it teach about the characters or events? What does it make you think?)
p. 216 – "Nonsense," laughed Rainsford. "This hot weather is making you soft, Whitney. Be a realist. The world is made up of two classes – the hunter and the huntees. Luckily, you and I are the hunters. Do you think we've passed that island yet?"	This passage is important because it shows what Rainsford thinks of the world. He says that there are two groups in the world. I think he means that some people are hunters and in control. Other people are followers. He seems like the kind of person who wants to stay in control.
p. 217– An abrupt sound startled him. Off to the right he heard it, and his ears, expert in such matters, could not be mistaken. Again he heard the sound, and again. Somewhere, off in the blackness, someone had fired a gun three times.
p. 218– He forced himself upward, hand over hand. Gasping his hands raw, he reached a flat place at the top. Dense jungle came down to the very edge of the cliffs... All he knew was that he was safe from his enemy, the sea.
p.218-219 – "Where there are pistol shots, there are men. Where there are men, there is food," he thought. But what kind of men, he wondered, in so forbidding a place?
