Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination Chisita, Collence, Takaingenhamo, Enakrire, Rexwhite Tega, Durodolu, Oluwale Olumide, Tsabedze, Vusi Wonderboy, Ngoaketsi, Joseph M., 2021-01-15. The convergence of technologies and emergence of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary modes of knowledge production justify the need for research that explores the disinterestedness or interconnectivity of the information science disciplines. The quantum leap in knowledge production, increasing demand for information and knowledge, changing information needs, information governance, and proliferation of digital technologies in the era of ubiquitous digital technologies justify research that employs a holistic approach in examining the challenges of managing information in an increasingly knowledge and technology-driven dispensation. The changing nature of knowledge production for sustainable development along with trends and theory for enhanced knowledge coordination deserve focus in current times. The Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination draws input from experts involved in records management, information science, library science, memory, and digital technology, creating a vanguard compendium of novel trends and praxis. While highlighting a vast array of topics under the scope of library science, information science, knowledge transfer, records management, and more, this book is ideally designed for knowledge and information managers, library and information science schools, policymakers, practitioners, stakeholders, administrators, researchers, academicians, and students interested in records and information management.

International Environments and Practices of Higher Education Andrea Caputo, Deborah Lock, Dieu Hack-Polay, 2022-10-31. This book provides a critical review of the teaching practices in higher education in international contexts. Sticky problems and debates about inclusivity, diversity, and cultural representation in the curriculum and classroom are explored through the eyes of the academics who negotiate complex teaching landscapes.

Revisiting Environmental and Natural Resource Questions in Sub-Saharan Africa Wilson Akpan, Philani Moyo, 2017-06-23. Based on case studies in Southern Africa, West Africa, and East Africa, this book revisits some of the dilemmas and paradoxes associated with the development, management, and utilisation of environmental resources, as well as the lacklustre official handling of climate change-related challenges in Sub-Saharan Africa. On the subject of natural resource exploitation in particular the book revisits scholarly debates and specific practices around compensation benefit and burden sharing local participation and space place dynamics It highlights fundamental ambiguities in the ways the dominant discourses and policy responses have been framed and mobilised and examines epistemic and ideational incongruences that have hobbled and sometimes negated the effectiveness of otherwise well intentioned interventions On climate change the book revisits debates around the vulnerability assets nexus with regard to mitigation and adaptation as well as the intersection of climate information and livelihoods in agro based settings The contradictions gaps and limitations of climate change policies and strategies in different regions are re examined based on new data In the last few years the Environment and Natural Resources Working Group of the South African Sociological Association SASA has intensified efforts to go beyond the annual SASA Congresses and the production of journal articles in making the research agendas of its members more visible to the global scholarly and policy community This book is one result of such efforts It calls for a constant questioning of orthodoxies and the promotion of ethnographically sensitive and epistemologically nuanced scholarly and policy approaches to developmental challenges in Africa especially in relation to environmental resources and environmental change
