Generations Of Good Food Eleanor Gaccetta, 2020-12-17 This cookbook is a compilation of recipes spanning six generations of my mother's family, other relatives, and many of our friends. This cookbook is an extension of One Caregiver's Journey published in March 2019. That book is a memoir of the 9 1/2 years I spent providing 24/7 care to my mother. It is a treasure trove of stories to make caregiving less of a challenge to anyone who is a caregiver or contemplating becoming a caregiver. Generations of Good Food was conceived during the winter of 2017 after my mother's death. I gathered all my mother's favorite cookbooks and recipes to the dining room table and began compiling a cookbook. The recipes were separated into categories and printed at a local office supply store. Bound in a three-ring binder, they were given to my mother's grand and great granddaughters, special young family members, and close friends. Generations of Good Food contains recipes from the early 1900s when many people gathered for a meal, and today when we cook to feed only a few. My father had a love for sweets, and this book has a collection of sweet delights. The book also contains recipes from friends and family that have been adopted and enjoyed by our family for many years.
