Practical Ideas for Teaching Writing as a Process Carol B. Olson,1996-02 Contains a collection of specific classroom strategies suggestions for teaching writing to elementary school students according to an eight stage process Specific techniques for teaching each stage of the writing process descriptions of proven approaches for using these techniques are also included A wonderful resource a labor of love from a large talented group of educators Had its beginnings in the California Writing Project at the Univ of California Irvine Best Seller Illustrated The Financing of Ideas and the Great Deviation Daniel Garcia-Macia,2017-07-31 Why did the Great Recession lead to such a slow recovery I build a model where heterogeneous firms invest in physical and intangible capital and can default on their debt In case of default intangible assets are harder to seize by creditors Hence intangible capital faces higher financing costs This differential is exacerbated in a financial crisis when default is more likely and aggregate risk bears a higher premium The resulting fall in intangible investment amplifies the crisis and gradual intangible spillovers to other firms contribute to its persistence Using panel data on Spanish manufacturing firms I estimate the model matching firm level moments regarding intangibles and financing The model captures the extent and components of the Great Recession in Spanish manufacturing whereas a standard model without endogenous intangible investment would miss more than half of the GDP fall A policy of transfers conditional on firm age could speed up the recovery as young firms tend to be more financially constrained particularly regarding intangible investment Conditioning transfers on firm size or subsidizing credit as in current E U policy appears to be less effective
