Teaching, 1921 The Education Gazette Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1975 Victoria Education Gazette and Teachers' Aid, 1939 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1980 School, 1922 Engineering; an Illustrated Weekly Journal, 1922 The Amateur Hour Jonathan Zimmerman, 2020-10-27 The first full length history of college teaching in the United States from the nineteenth century to the present this book sheds new light on the ongoing tension between the modern scholarly ideal scientific objective and dispassionate and the inevitably subjective nature of day to day instruction American college teaching is in crisis or so we are told But we ve heard that complaint for the past 150 years as critics have denounced the poor quality of instruction in undergraduate classrooms Students daydream in gigantic lecture halls while a professor drones on or they meet with a teaching assistant for an hour of aimless discussion The modern university does not reward teaching so faculty members at every level neglect it in favor of research and publication In the first book length history of American college teaching Jonathan Zimmerman confirms but also contradicts these perennial complaints Drawing upon a wide range of previously unexamined sources The Amateur Hour shows how generations of undergraduates indicted the weak instruction they received But Zimmerman also chronicles institutional efforts to improve it especially by making teaching more personal As higher education grew into a gigantic industry he writes American colleges and universities introduced small group activities and other reforms designed to counter the anonymity of mass instruction They also experimented with new technologies like television and computers which promised to personalize teaching by tailoring it to the individual interests and abilities of each student But Zimmerman reveals the emphasis on the personal inhibited the professionalization of college teaching which remains ultimately an amateur enterprise The more that Americans treated teaching as a highly personal endeavor dependent on the idiosyncrasies of the instructor the less they could develop shared standards for it Nor have they rigorously documented college instruction a highly public activity which has taken place mostly in private Pushing open the classroom door The Amateur Hour illuminates American college teaching and frames a fresh case for restoring intimate learning communities especially for America s least privileged students Anyone who wants to change college teaching will have to start here The Colorado School Journal Aaron Gove, Dorus Reuben Hatch, Harry McWhirter Barrett, Nathan B. Coy, Henry Burnside Smith, William Barnard Mooney, 1896 The English Professor Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary, 2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O Leary and Dennis S O Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post

bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States Annual Report of the Board of State Auditors for the State of Michigan for the Year ... Michigan.
