Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada

Mireille Paquet, 2019-01-01 Most accounts of the provincial role in Canadian immigration focus on the experience of Quebec In Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada Mireille Paquet shows that between 1990 and 2010 all ten provinces became closely involved in immigrant selection and integration This considerable change to the Canadian model of immigration governance corresponds to a broader process of federalization of immigration by which both orders of government became active in the management of immigration While Canada maintains its overall positive approach to newcomers the provinces developed and continue to develop their own formal immigration strategies and implement various selections and integration policies This book argues that the process of federalization is largely the result of provincial mobilization In each province mobilization occurred through a modern iteration of province building this time focused on immigrants as resources for provincial economies and societies Advocating for a province centred analysis of federalism Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada provides key lessons to understanding the contemporary governance of immigration in Canada

Farm Workers in Western Canada Shirley A. McDonald, Bob Barnetson, 2017-01-16

Bill 6 the government of Alberta's contentious farm workers safety legislation sparked public debate as no other legislation has done in recent years The Enhanced Protection for Farm and Ranch Workers Act provides a right to work safely and a compensation system for those killed or injured at work similar to other provinces In nine essays contributors to Farm Workers in Western Canada place this legislation in context They look at the origins work conditions and precarious lives of farm workers in terms of larger historical forces such as colonialism land rights and racism They also examine how the rights and privileges of farm workers including seasonal and temporary foreign workers conflict with those of their employers and reveal the barriers many face by being excluded from most statutory employment laws sometimes in violation of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Contributors Gianna Argento Bob Barnetson Michael J Broadway Jill Bucklaschuk Delna Contractor Darlene A Dunlop Brynna Hambly Takasugi Zane Hamm Paul Kennett Jennifer Koshan C F Andrew Lau J Graham Martinelli Shirley A McDonald Robin C McIntyre Nelson Medeiros Kerry Preibisch Heidi Rolfe Patricia Tomic Ricardo Trumper and Kay Elizabeth Turner Compassionate Migration and Regional Policy in the Americas Steven W.

Bender, William F. Arrocha, 2017-04-20 This book explores the contested notion of compassionate migration in its discourse and practice In the context of today's migration patterns within the Americas compassionate migration can play a fundamental role in responding to the hardships that many migrants suffer before during and after their journeys This volume explores the boundaries of compassion from legal political philosophical and interdisciplinary perspectives and supplies examples where state and non state actors engage in practices of compassion and humanity through formal and informal regimes Despite the lack of a concise and precise definition of the concept and practice of compassionate migration all authors in this volume agree on the pressing need for more humane and compassionate treatment for those leaving their home country behind in search of a better life

Bayanihan and Belonging Alison R. Marshall, 2018-02-05 Filipinos make up one of the largest immigrant groups in Canada and the majority continue to retain their Roman Catholic faith long after migrating Drawing on archival and ethnographic research in Canada and the Philippines from 1880 to 2017 Bayanihan and Belonging aims to understand the role of religion within present day Filipino Canadian communities With a focus on Winnipeg home to Canada's oldest and largest Filipino Canadian community Alison R Marshall showcases current church based and domestic religious routines of migrant Filipinos From St Edward the Confessor Church the principal site of worship for Filipino Catholics in Manitoba to home chapels and healing traditions Marshall explores the day to day celebrations of bayanihan or communal spirit Drawing on experiences from Manitoba's Filipino population Bayanihan and Belonging reveals that religious practise fulfills not only a need for spiritual guidance but also for community

Human Rights and Judicial Review in Australia and Canada Janina Boughey, 2017-06-15 It is commonly asserted that bills of rights have had a righting effect on the principles of judicial review of administrative action and have been a key driver of the modern expansion in judicial oversight of the executive arm of government A number of commentators have pointed to Australian administrative law as evidence for this righting hypothesis They have suggested that the fact that Australia is an outlier among common law jurisdictions in having neither a statutory nor a constitutional framework to expressly protect human rights explains why Australia alone continues to take an apparently formalist legalist and conservative approach to administrative law Other commentators and judges including a number in Canada have argued the opposite that bills of rights have the effect of stifling the development of the common law However for the most part all these claims remain just that there has been limited detailed analysis of the issue and no detailed comparative analysis of the veracity of the claims This book analyses in detail the interaction between administrative and human rights law in Australia and Canada arguing that both jurisdictions have reached remarkably similar positions regarding the balance between judicial and executive power and between broader fundamental principles including the rule of law parliamentary sovereignty and the separation of powers It will provide valuable reading for all those researching judicial review and human rights

Science Education in Canada Christine D. Tippet, Todd M. Milford, 2019-07-01 This book offers a meso level description of demographics science education and science teacher education Representing all 13 Canadian jurisdictions the book provides local insights that serve as the basis for exploring the Canadian system as a whole and function as a common starting point from which to identify causal relationships that may be associated with Canada's successes The book highlights commonalities consistencies and distinctions across the provinces and territories in a thematic analysis of the 13 jurisdiction specific chapters Although the analysis indicates a network of policy and practice issues warranting further consideration the diverse nature of Canadian science education makes simple identification of causal relationships elusive Canada has a reputation for strong science achievement However there is currently limited literature on science education in Canada at the general level or in specific areas such as Canadian science curriculum or science teacher education This book fills that gap by presenting a thorough description of science education at the provincial territorial level as well as a more holistic description of pressing issues for Canadian science education Settlements at the Edge Andrew Taylor, Dean B. Carson, Prescott C. Ensign, Lee Huskey, Rasmus Ole Rasmussen, 2016-09-30 Settlements at the Edge examines the evolution characteristics functions and shifting economic basis of settlements in sparsely populated areas of developed nations With a focus on demographic change the book features theoretical and applied cases which explore the interface between demography economy well being and the environment This book offers a comprehensive and insightful knowledge base for understanding the role of population in shaping the development and histories of northern sparsely populated areas of developed nations including Alaska USA Australia Canada Greenland Norway Russia Sweden Finland and other nations with territories within the Arctic Circle
