Doing Your Research Project: A Guide For First-Time Researchers Bell, Judith, Waters, Stephen, 2014-08-01 Doing your Research Project is the market leading book for students across the social sciences conducting small scale research projects

Ground Rules for Good Research Martyn Denscombe, 2002 This work provides a user friendly starting point for people doing small scale social research projects It identifies the key ideas and practices that underlie good research and provides clear guidelines to help newcomers and experienced researchers alike to design and conduct projects which meet the basic criteria for success It is written for undergraduate postgraduate and professional students in business studies social sciences health studies media studies and education who need to undertake research projects as part of their studies It will also prove invaluable for professionals with little experience of research How To Research Blaxter, Loraine, Hughes, Christina, Tight, Malcolm, 2010-09-01 How to Research is a clear and accessible guide to the business of doing a research project It systematically takes the reader through from the planning to the writing up and finishing off The new edition of this book will include Preach the Word Myles MacBean, 2019-11-11 How should we help equip the church leaders of Africa today There remains a well documented lack of theologically sound Bible centric preaching in Sub Saharan Africa The majority of sermons are preached by untrained or undertrained church leaders Following a practical theology praxis this book develops a conceptual framework for the evaluation of existing alternative approaches to grassroots preacher training It also proposes broad principles for effective preacher training and offers a practical solution The 20th century had seen the Christian church in Africa grow 36 fold to 360 million This amazing growth is arguably the largest religious change in human history in such a short period It has shifted the focus of Christianity from North to South This rapid growth is debatably considered by some missiologists and theologians to have resulted in an African church a mile wide and an inch deep That is a church of great size but lacking in spiritual depth The rapid growth has led to insufficient numbers of trained leaders being available to oversee their congregations Most leaders are unpaid Untrained or undertrained leaders have an inadequate knowledge of scripture and lack understanding of its interpretation They also lack the skills they need to communicate its truths Even so they preach up to 90% of the sermons in rural Africa Despite a tremendous hunger for training among many of those preachers traditional college based theological education cannot keep up with the demand for trained pastors and preachers in an affordable or culturally appropriate manner EBOOK: Social Research Tim May, 2011-03-16 This fully revised and updated popular text successfully bridges the gap between theory and methods in social research clearly illuminating these essential components for understanding the dynamics of social relations The book is divided into two parts with part one examining the issues and perspectives in social research and part two setting out the methods and processes Updates to this edition include A new chapter on case study research A new concluding chapter Links to additional websites and IT applications that are integrated throughout the book Updated experiential examples and scenarios More international examples The clear writing style chapter summaries questions for reflection and signposts to further readings continue to make this book the ideal companion to social research for students across the social sciences In addition it will be recognised as an invaluable source of reference for those practising and teaching social research who wish to keep abreast of key developments in the field With contributions from Beth Perry University of Salford and Carole Sutton University of Plymouth
