FCC ID Radio Frequency Interference Statement

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the FCC rules in that it does not produce, generate or emit RF energy. These limits are designed to provide maximum protection against harmful interference when the equipment is operated in accordance with the instructions. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy which if not properly used can cause interference with the reception of nearby radio receiving equipment. It is the responsibility of the user to ensure that this equipment does not cause harmful interference to other users and to take any necessary steps to resolve such interference.

Section 1

The changes to modifications not explicitly approved by the party responsible for compliance must not be used to alter the equipment.

Section 2

Product owners must not use, produce, modify, or use any other means to comply with the product rules.

Users are not to be held responsible for any interference caused by the equipment.

FC Radio Frequency Interference
Statement

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.
