Veterinarian, 1966 Consumer Preferences and Acceptance of Food

Products Derek V. Byrne, 2020-12-01 The acceptance and preference of the sensory properties of foods are among the most important criteria determining food choice Sensory perception and our response to food products and finally food choice itself are affected by a myriad of intrinsic and extrinsic factors The pressing question is how do these factors specifically affect our acceptance and preference for foods both in and of themselves and in combination in various contexts both fundamental and applied In addition which factors overall play the largest role in how we perceive and behave towards food in daily life Finally how can these factors be utilized to affect our preferences and final acceptance of real food and food products from industrial production and beyond for healthier eating A closer look at trends in research showcasing the influence that these factors and our senses have on our perception and affective response to food products and our food choices is timely Thus in this Special Issue collection Consumer Preferences and Acceptance of Food Products we bring together articles which encompass the wide scope of multidisciplinary research in the space related to the determination of key factors involved linked to fundamental interactions cross modal effects in different contexts and eating scenarios as well as studies that utilize unique study design approaches and methodologies Fire on the Water Scott MacGregor, 2020-05-12

A novel based on a true tale of heroism and invention in the tunnels beneath Lake Erie in 1916 This original graphic novel imagines the lives of blue collar workers involved in the real life Lake Erie tunnel disaster of 1916 in Cleveland Author Scott MacGregor and illustrator Gary Dumm tell the intersecting stories of a brilliant African American inventor Ben Beltran based on the real life Garrett Morgan Sr desperate immigrants tunneling beneath Lake Erie and corrupt overseers who risk countless lives for profit As historical fiction Fire on the Water sheds light not only on one of America s earliest man made ecological disasters but also on racism and the economic disparity between classes in the Midwest at the turn of the century
