Fernando Do Fantasy:

The Dakota Hunter Hans Wiesman, 2020-01-10 A tale of a lifelong passion for a WWII aircraft that changed the author's life It is almost like an adventure novel except it is true Air Classics This book tells the story of a Dutch boy who grew up during the 1950s in postwar Borneo where he had frequent encounters with an airplane the Douglas DC 3 aka the C 47 Skytrain or Dakota of World War II fame For a young boy living in a remote jungle community the aircraft reached the proportions of a romantic icon as the essential lifeline to a bigger world for him the beginning of a special bond In 1957 his family left the island and all its residual wreckage of World War II and he attended college in The Hague After graduation he started a career as a corporate executive and met the aircraft again during business trips to the Americas His childhood passion for the Dakota flared up anew and the fascination pulled like a magnet As if predestined or maybe just looking for an excuse to come closer he began a business to salvage and convert Dakota parts which meant first of all finding them As the demand for these war relic parts and cockpits soared he began to travel the world to track down surplus crashed or derelict Dakotas He ventured deeper and deeper into remote mountains jungles savannas and the seas where the planes are found usually as ghostly wrecks but sometimes still in full commercial operation In hunting the mythical Dakota he often encountered intimidating or dicey situations in countries plagued by wars or revolts others by arms and narcotics trafficking warlords and crime The stories of these expeditions take the reader to some of the remotest spots in the world but once there one is often greeted by the comfort of what was once the West's apex in transportation however now haunted by the courageous airmen of the past The Mexican Filmography, 1916 through 2001 David E. Wilt, 2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need Arranged by year of release and then by title the filmography contains entries that include basic information film and translated title production company genre director cast a plot summary and additional information about the film Inclusion criteria a film must be a Mexican production or co production feature length one hour or more silent films excepted fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release Reason and Its Others David R. Castillo, Massimo Lollini, 2006 By exploring manifestations of normative and non normative thinking in the geopolitical and cultural contexts of Early Modern Italy Spain and the American colonies this volume hopes to encourage interdisciplinary discussions on the early modern notions of reason and unreason good and evil justice and injustice center and periphery freedom and containment self and other Best Friends, Worst Enemies Michael Thompson, PhD, Cathie O'Neill-Grace, 2002-07-30 With uncommon sensitivity and intelligence this book offers parents a window into their kids often tumultuous relationships with classmates Time Friends broaden our children's horizons share their joys and secrets and Susan E. Gustafson,2016-06-30 Throughout his literary work Goethe portrays characters who defy and reject 18th and 19th century ideals of aristocratic and civil families notions of heritage assumptions about biological connections expectations about heterosexuality and legal mandates concerning marriage The questions Goethe s plays and novels pose are often modern and challenging Do social conventions family expectations and legal mandates matter Can two men or two women pair together and be parents How many partners or parents should there be Two One A group Can parents love children not biologically related to them Do biological parents always love their children What is the nature of adoptive parents children and families Ultimately what is the fundamental essence of love and family Gustafson demonstrates that Goethe s conception of the elective affinities is certainly not limited to heterosexual spouses or occasionally to men desiring men A close analysis of Goethe s explication of affinities throughout his literary production reveals his rejection of loveless relationships for example arranged marriages and his acceptance and promotion of all relationships formed through spontaneous affinities and love including heterosexual same sex nonexclusive group parental and adoptive ...
