Introduction

This paper would discuss and evaluate the causes of the origin and evolution of the world-famous French Revolution. It would cover all aspects and perspectives of the French Revolution.

Revolution - the term means to rebel or overthrow a government or a social system. It results in a complete change from the existing situation. Generally, a revolution happens when there is widespread misery, unhappiness, and dissatisfaction among the mass of common people in any country. People may be unhappy because their basic needs are not been taken care of by their ruler or government. History shows that there has been some type of revolution almost all over the world at various times. Europe has also had its share of revolution. The famous uprising in France in the 18th century resulted in what is now known as the French Revolution.

Main body

The French revolution, in this part of the world at least, was the inspiration for all subsequent uprisings and revolts throughout Europe in the nineteenth century and its ideals, in part, are visible in many of the twentieth centuries' wars as well. Before talking about the reasons why the revolution occurred, it is appropriate to place it in its context in European history. The French revolution has traditionally been viewed as a major dividing line in modern Europe's history, an event which has destroyed that complex of political, social, legal, and juridical institutions known as the old regime and inaugurated a new era characterized by a greater emphasis upon individual rights, the spread of a representative government and the emergence of a new kind of loyalty to the nation.

The causes of the French Revolution have been stated by many historians and authors, all of whom have given their expert views. The main causes of the revolution are understood as food and financial crises and social inequality. Some authors say that the American Revolution and the Enlightenment had a lot of influence on the French Revolution. Louis XVI was the king of France in the year 1789 when the nation had

Revolutionary Ideas Jonathan Israel,2015-09-22 Historians of the French Revolution used to take for granted what was also obvious to its contemporary observers that the Revolution was caused by the radical ideas of the Enlightenment Yet in recent decades scholars have argued that the Revolution was brought about by social forces politics economics or culture almost anything but abstract notions like liberty or equality In Revolutionary Ideas one of the world's leading historians of the Enlightenment restores the Revolution's intellectual history to its rightful central role Drawing widely on primary sources Jonathan Israel shows how the Revolution was set in motion by radical eighteenth century doctrines how these ideas divided revolutionary leaders into vehemently opposed ideological blocs and how these clashes drove the turning points of the Revolution Revolutionary Ideas demonstrates that the Revolution was really three different revolutions vying for supremacy a conflict between constitutional monarchists such as Lafayette who advocated moderate Enlightenment ideas democratic republicans allied to Tom Paine who fought for Radical Enlightenment ideas and authoritarian populists such as Robespierre who violently rejected key Enlightenment ideas and should ultimately be seen as Counter Enlightenment figures The book tells how the fierce rivalry between these groups shaped the course of the Revolution from the Declaration of Rights through liberal monarchism and democratic republicanism to the Terror and the Post Thermidor reaction In this compelling account the French Revolution stands once again as a culmination of the emancipatory and democratic ideals of the Enlightenment

That it ended in the Terror represented a betrayal of those ideas not their fulfillment book jacket
