Greg Campbell Accident Report:

The Trouble with Reporting Northern Ireland David Butler, 1995 This text investigates the troubled relationship between British broadcasting and Northern Ireland The work combines historical sociological and cultural studies approaches to the study of Northern Ireland with critically informed analysis of nonfictional coverage of the conflict It considers the peculiar institutional development of local radio and television in the context of a long term view of consensus broadcasting in the state in Britain demonstrating how in the years since 1968 the reporting of Northern Ireland has adversely affected the traditionally independent position of British broadcasting Reports of cases argued and determined in the Supreme Court of the State of Montana ,1996 United States Reports United States. The Law Times Reports ,1863 Education in Northern Ireland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee, 2006-02-09 Secondary education in Northern Ireland is currently based on a selective system according to academic ability with the use of an 11 plus style test However the DfES has announced that academic selection will be ended by autumn 2008 and a consultation document published in December 2005 set out proposals for new post primary arrangements Although it was felt to be inappropriate to undertake a full inquiry at this late stage in the decision making process the Committee s report contains oral and written evidence submitted by interested parties to the debate The Committee notes that education is a formerly devolved responsibility and states its hope that there will be scope for detailed supervision of any reforms by a restored Northern Ireland Assembly as well as by the House of Commons ghost town but Frank is surprised by the number of people willing even eager to talk with him Soon he meets Msizi a young diamond digger and his pigeon Bartholomew who helps him steal diamonds It s a deadly game pigeons are shot on sight by mine security and Msizi knows of smugglers who have disappeared because of their crimes For this Msizi blames Mr Lester an evil tall tale figure of mythic proportions From the mining towns of Alexander Bay and Port Nolloth through the halfway desert to Kleinsee s shores littered with shipwrecks Frank investigates a long overlooked story Weaving interviews with local diamond miners who raise pigeons in secret with harrowing anecdotes from former heads of security environmental managers and vigilante pigeon hunters Frank reveals how these feathered bandits became outlaws in every mining town Interwoven throughout this obsessive quest are epic legends in which pigeons and diamonds intersect such as that of Krishna s famed diamond Koh i Noor the Mountain of Light and that of the Cherokee serpent Uktena In these strange connections where truth forever tangles with the lore of centuries past Frank is able to contextualize the personal grief that sent him with his wife Louisa in the passenger seat on this enlightening journey across parched lands Blending elements of reportage memoir and incantation Flight of the Diamond Smugglers is a rare and remarkable portrait of exploitation and greed in one of the most dangerous areas of coastal South Africa With his sovereign prose and insatiable curiosity Matthew Gavin Frank reminds us that the world is a place of wonder if only we look Toby Muse Lloyd's List Law Reports ,1925 "The
