Grief Support Group Curriculum Facilitators Handbook:

Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann, Shane R. Jimerson, Ann Gaasch, 2001 Contains lesson plans for 10 sessions that include age appropriate activities These fun and engaging activities enable young children to approach highly sensitive and painful topics

Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann, Shane R. Jimerson, Ann Gaasch, 2012-12-06 The Grief Support Group Curriculum provides a basis for assisting children and teenagers as they learn about mourning through facing death of a close or special friend The aim of this curriculum is to facilitate healthy variations of mourning and positive adaptations following the death of a friend or family member The work illustrates mourning in four stages of development and is accordingly divided into four separate texts The texts focus on preschool aged children children in kindergarten through grade two children in grades three through six and teenagers Resources in Education, 2000-10

Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park, 2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God's grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan, John L. McIntosh, 2011-01-19 A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background research and tools to effectively work with the survivors This edited volume addresses the need for an up to date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors Encyclopedia of School Psychology T. Stuart Watson, Christopher H. Skinner, 2012-12-06 School psychologists are on the front lines in dealing with the most significant challenges facing children and the educational community today And in a world of ever increasing risks and obstacles for students school psychologists must be able to use their in depth psychological and educational training to work effectively with students parents teachers administrators and other mental health professionals to help create safe learning environments By recognizing each individual student's unique circumstances and personality school psychologists are able to offer specialized services to address such crucial children's issues as family troubles e.g. divorce death school assignments depression anger management substance abuse study skills learning disabilities sexuality and self discipline The Encyclopedia of School Psychology provides school psychologists and other educational and mental health professionals with a thorough understanding of the most current theories research and practices in this critical area In addition the Encyclopedia offers the most up to date information on important issues from assessment to intervention to prevention techniques Helping Teens Work Through Grief Mary Kelly Perschy,2012-09-10 The second edition of Helping Teens Work Through Grief provides a more complete and updated manual for facilitators of teen grief groups It includes additional background information about developmental aspects of teens the process of grief aspects of trauma and its effects on teens the value of a group determining the group appropriateness of particular teens and parental involvement The many details involved with beginning a group publicity interviews registration structure closure evaluation and follow up are listed Ageing and Older Adult Mental Health Patrick Ryan,Barry J. Coughlan,2013-03-01 This book examines the issues and implications that mental health professionals face when dealing with ageing and older adults The book focuses on the biological psychological and cultural influences that impact on the work of mental health practitioners who work with this client group Based on current empirical research and evidence based practical issues this book explores topics including ageing and dementia elder abuse caring for older adults depression and ageing the paradox of ageing how older adults are key to the success of future generations Throughout the book the contributors emphasise the notion of healthy ageing and the importance and significance of this concept as part of the life cycle process As such Ageing and Older Adult Mental Health will be key reading not only for mental health professionals but also for those involved in policy making for older adults Healing Men's Pain Curriculum, Facilitator's Guide Dan Griffin,Jonathan De Carlo,2024-09-10 A 36 hour curriculum designed to help men overcome past trauma and develop the skills they need to live safe and caring lives Healing Men s Pain Curriculum helps male identified participants create a vision of the men they want to be and provides them with the awareness tools and confidence to achieve that vision Each of the 18 two hour cofacilitated sessions includes activities exercises and experiential opportunities enabling each participant to connect with the content on a personal level The program is wide ranging and encompasses a variety of topics to help participants develop increased self awareness to enhance their relationships Participants explore their childhood adolescent and adult trauma relational struggles particularly issues of healthy attachment and other issues that male identified individuals often experience The material in Healing Men s Pain Curriculum will stretch both participants and facilitators alike The sessions are designed to take a deep and comprehensive look at everything that blocks men from being the best men they can be The curriculum speaks to all learning styles through the use of art physical movement and roleplays Participants are given additional learning opportunities in the form of assignments to complete between sessions These assignments build upon the roleplays and in session practice to help participants translate the material directly into their own lives Help men address their traumas develop self awareness and build healthier relationships in recovery programs

Settling the Storm: A Guide to Facilitating Grief Groups ,2011-04-23 Technically there are two types of grief groups The informative supportive grief groups purpose is to promote grief education and awareness It covers grief and bereavement in a more didactic fashion The second type of grief group is therapeutic in nature It is personal growth oriented groups focusing on facilitating the individual participant s own personal loss process Though many commonalities exist between these two types of groups each has its own unique dynamics and concerns This book focuses on the second type of group sometimes referred to as Grief Recovery Groups I prefer the term Grief Management I learned a long time ago that there is no recovery from grief precipitated by the loss of a beloved but we can overcome Settling the Storm is particularly designed for all who are currently leading a group who are thinking about facilitating a grief group in the future or would like to learn some additional skills or ideas in creating a grief group within a small gathering of people It was created and organized to help Facilitators plan and facilitate grief groups It takes off by inviting you to self assess readiness to lead griever on the journey through grief reviews the typical characteristics of effective Facilitators and accentuates the vital skills necessary for ensuring positive outcomes The next chapter moves you on to a refresher glance at the anatomy of grief and bereavement by considering elements that influence grief explores the categories of grief and discusses issues relative to grief of the elderly The third section focuses on the essentials for group preparation and helps you organize your thoughts and ideas about groups The practical aspects of goals and objectives and other information are included to provide you with an adequate blueprint for the implementation of your first group session The Content of the Session provides you with some thoughts and suggestions on what to do in your grief groups In addition setting up group guidelines structuring cathartic activities and evaluating the group process are also covered You will be given tried and proven methodologies used to promote the emotional and spiritual well being of grieving group members and fundamental tools needed for ensuring the best possible results A grief group curriculum that can be used as a model is integrated into the overall presentation Optional resources are appended Young Women's Lives Facilitator's Guide - Item 5424 , Art Therapy and Health Care Cathy A.

Malchiodi,2012-10-19 Demonstrating the benefits of creative expression for patients living with acute or chronic illness this volume provides a complete practical introduction to medical art therapy It presents evidence based strategies for helping people of all ages from young children to older adults cope with physical and cognitive symptoms reduce stress and improve their quality of life The book includes detailed case material and 110 illustrations It describes ways to work with individuals and groups with specific health conditions and challenges as well as their family members Contributors are experienced art therapists who combine essential knowledge with in depth clinical guidance This e book edition features 87 full color illustrations Illustrations will appear in black and white on black and white e readers The Art of Grief J. Earl

Rogers,2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy Leading Psychoeducational Groups for Children and Adolescents Janice L. DeLucia-Waack,2006-05-03 This book provides readers with direction on how to organize psychoeducational groups while also helping them enhance skills for effectively leading such groups all in one comprehensive volume Offering an applied pragmatic approach author Janice L DeLucia Waack uniquely integrates research and practice to suggest valuable leadership strategies while addressing special issues such as children of divorce anger management bullying behaviors and much more

Grief and Trauma Counseling Education: Preparing Future Counselors Cox, Michelle R.,2024-07-22 In the aftermath of the Covid 19 pandemic the struggles faced by caregivers in navigating the depths of grief and trauma have become increasingly pronounced The profound challenges inherent in this journey unfold starkly in the experiences of those who have shouldered the weight of caregiving responsibilities during these trying times The emotional toll compounded by the complexities of the pandemic paints a picture of resilience and struggle Amidst this narrative of hardship and endurance emerges a crucial resource that delves into the heart of this issue providing insights and strategies for those grappling with the dual complexities of personal grief and professional counseling This invaluable guide titled Grief and Trauma Counseling Education Preparing Future Counselors encapsulates the essence of the caregiver s journey and offers a lifeline for those seeking understanding and support in the face of unprecedented challenges Structured to cater to a diverse audience this book is a valuable resource for graduate students in counseling programs undergraduates in social science courses and practicing counselors It recognizes the scarcity of literature focusing on grief counseling from the perspective of a counselor educator undergoing personal recovery The book provides essential tools for navigating the grief process from diagnosis to the end of life making it an indispensable guide for those in the counseling profession Furthermore the targeted approach extends to policymakers responsible for healthcare system improvements ensuring that the book s impact reverberates in spheres where systemic change is needed

Setting Up and Facilitating Bereavement Support Groups Dodie Graves,2012 A practical introduction to setting up and facilitating bereavement support groups guiding the reader through all stages It examines the different skills needed and uses case studies and research to suggest models of best practice across a range of group settings The guidance will help make groups successful for participants and facilitators

The Caring Congregation Ministry Implementation Guide Karen Lampe,Melissa Collier Gepford,2021-05-04 Pastors and church leaders genuinely want to care for people in their congregations and communities But pastors cannot care for an entire church and most laypersons don t have the training to do it The Caring Congregation Ministry is a model for person to person care that s been proven to work in small and large churches across the U S It is a laity centered ministry where laypersons receive rigorous training and then are commissioned to serve as Congregational Care Ministers caring for others in their own congregation and their extended community This remarkable approach to congregational care was first developed by author Karen Lampe and her team at The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City It has been tested refined and strengthened and is now being adapted in all sorts of congregational settings One early adapter was co author Melissa Gepford who launched a Caring Congregation Ministry in her own rural church Together they have created this immensely practical guide for any pastor or leader seeking to create a congregational care ministry This Implementation Guide is the main book for getting started It introduces the ministry model and explains the Five Essentials which form the ministry s foundation It is extremely practical full of checklists and other tools to help pastors and other leaders understand and explain this way of providing congregational care The Implementation Guide also includes a section focused on the crucial component of this ministry the Congregational Care Minister or CCM This section fully describes the characteristics of CCM s how to recruit people to this ministry how to discern if candidates are a good fit and how to conduct the CCM training over a multi week period It details the critical information CCM s must know and the behaviors and habits they must practice in order to be effective Note that the companion book The Caring Congregation Ministry Care Minister s Manual is required for the CCM training It serves as a training workbook which then becomes the CCM s personal reference manual Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001
