

HOW TO Re-write YOUR SONG

- 1 Is the concept strong?
- 2 Does your song effectively communicate that concept?
- 3 Does the structure make sense? Is it confusing or hard to follow if you've never heard it before?
- 4 Does each section sound distinct? (For instance, can a listener easily tell where a verse ends and a chorus begins?)
- 5 Are there extraneous lines or sections that could be removed?
- 6 How long is it? Is it a good length for your purposes?
- 7 Have you played it for others? Cowriters? Peers? Mentors?

was not gifted with extraordinary talents I just studied with some of the industry's top professional songwriters and kept writing. The more I wrote the better my songs became. If I can do that so can you. Here's another way to look at it: If you were stuck on a deserted island and the only way you could get off was to read this book and write three good songs, I guarantee that you would write three good songs. It's just a matter of learning the craft and putting in the time. Nothing magical. If you're just starting out as a songwriter, your first few songs will be rough. That's normal. It doesn't mean you're a bad songwriter. It just means you're a beginning songwriter. If you stick with it, you'll get better. Start writing and keep writing. Even if you're a complete beginner, you will learn how to:

- 1 Write great lyrics
- 2 Create awesome melodies for your lyrics
- 3 Record your first demo
- 4 Get your songs heard by industry pros
- 5 Copyright your songs
