guidance      The Villager Feyi Olubodun,2018-02-05 The Villager is essential reading for brand owners wishing to conquer new markets When Feyi Olubodun CEO of one of West Africa s leading creative agencies witnessed one too many cases of brands failing in the African marketplace he began to ask himself questions Why did brands both global and local so often fail to connect with the African consumer And what was it about the African market that brand owners were not seeing He began to reflect on his own marketing experiences and out of this emerged the framework for The Villager In Feyi s view the African consumer begins his life s journey by moving from the village his rural dwelling to the city carrying with him not only his own dreams but also the dreams of his community He is a highly aspirational consumer motivated to succeed and he becomes the economic portal for the rest of his community back home But although he may be exposed to global influences and technology his essential identity remains largely intact This is why Feyi calls the African consumer a Villager The Village is no longer a physical space it is a psychological construct that defines him and the filter through which he engages with and consumes brands In developing his construct Feyi posits that if you wish to engage successfully in a market you may not understand you must have the right lenses to view a people He believes the secret lies in applying these lenses at the confluence of commerce culture and consumer Data is not enough to understand the vagaries of a particular market Drawing on his wide experience and wealth of astute observations he provides a highly readable and indispensable guide to the mindset of the African consumer today yet it is true to say that his insights apply albeit in a more nuanced way to consumer behaviour across the globe      Willing's Press Guide ,2004 Coverage of publications outside the UK and in non English languages expands steadily until in 1991 it occupies enough of the Guide to require publication in parts      Intelligent Virtual Agents Hannes Högni Vilhjálmsson,Stefan Kopp,Stacy Marsella,Kristinn R. Thorisson,2011-09-06 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 11th International Conference on Intelligent Virtual Agents IVA 2011 held in Reykjavik Island in September 2011 The 18 revised full papers and 27 revised short papers presented together with 25 poster papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 91 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on social and dramatic interaction guides and relational agents nonverbal behavior adaptation and coordination listening and feedback frameworks and tools cooperation and copresence emotion poster abstracts      Tigers of the Snow and Other Virtual Sherpas Vincanne Adams,2014-05-06 Sherpas are portrayed by Westerners as heroic mountain guides or tigers of the snow as Buddhist adepts and as a people in touch with intimate ways of life that seem no longer available in the Western world In this book Vincanne Adams explores how attempts to characterize an authentic Sherpa are complicated by Western fascination with Sherpas and by the Sherpas desires to live up to Western portrayals of them Noting that diplomatic aides at world summit meetings go by the name Sherpa as do a van in the U K built for rough terrain and a software product from Silicon Valley Adams examines the authenticating effects of this mobile signifier on a community of Himalayan Sherpas who live at the base of Mount Everest Nepal and its deauthenticating effects on anthropological representation This book speaks not only to anthropologists concerned with ethnographic portrayals of Otherness but also to those working in cultural studies who are concerned with ethnographically grounded analyses of representations Throughout Adams illustrates how one might undertake an ethnography of transnationally produced subjects by using the notion of virtual identities In a manner informed by both Buddhism and shamanism virtual Sherpas are always both real and distilled reflections of the desires that produce them pondering If India was as terrible as the media made it out to be how has it endured these thousands of years Surely there are a great many who are doing the good work despite all obstacles that we merely complain about Who are they and what good work are they doing What or who made them dedicate themselves to their work Driven by these questions that man D V Sridharan then fifty eight years old decided to go out discover their stories and highlight good news from India for India and the world After building a basic website goodnewsindia com and armed with an early model of a digital camera he drove around the country to meet and write about their work It turned out there were numerous little known heroes who despite adverse circumstances braved on with the good work they believed in In the process he discovered what was worth working on for the furtherance of India as a civilisation Good News India showcases some of those ordinary Indians and their extraordinary work These are stories of positive action steely endeavour and quiet triumphs
