Goddard, 2017-01-23 Ronald G Goddard grew up seeing Hollywood movies that showed American troops boarding ships and going off to World War II with bands playing and well wishers swarming docks to give soldiers rousing sendoffs But when his troop transport ship left San Diego Harbor for Vietnam in March 1967 there were no patriotic farewells It would be a chilling wake up call for Goddard and his fellow marines of Golf Company 2nd Platoon 2nd Battalion 4th Marines He shares an accurate account of their experiences in this autobiography From being issued an M16 rifle that jammed to being baptized in a blaze of fire on the front lines he reveals what he learned about fighting the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Regular Army troops in the rice paddies and jungles from DaNang to the DMZ At nineteen years old Goddard was a corporal leading squad sized patrols      South Pacific Handbook David Stanley, 1989 A comprehensive guide to the 16 territories of Polynesia and Melanesia not just the popular spots This is a guide for the budget traveller to the whole of the South Pacific      U.S. Marine Guidebook, 2010 Here is everything there is to know about the essentials of life as a Marine From fitness to first aid to firing positions this book covers all subjects in which every troop regardless of rank must maintain proficiency Learn the Military's Code of Conduct understand the Dos and Don'ts of surviving as a POW and grasp the foundation of military law Find out about Marine customs uniforms and drills Follow the Marine Corps fitness routines to get into the best shape of your life Read the detailed section on first aid and learn how to perform CPR make braces for broken limbs dress and bandage wounds improvise slings and transport injured victims Find out about the symptoms and treatment of chemical agents and learn how to safely travel through a contaminated area Also included in the U S Marine Guidebook are marksmanship requirements navigation tactics and nuclear biological and chemical defense The U S Marine Guidebook details procedure during combat including code of conduct in war and when to use deadly force Because these subjects are first taught and tested during recruit training they are the distinctive qualities of a Marine and his training Anyone who is interested in what makes a Marine the strong brave and skilled individual he or she must be will find this book fascinating      Marines In World War II - The Campaign On New Britain [Illustrated Edition] Lt. Col. Frank O. Hough USMCR, Major John A. Crown, 2014-08-15 As the might of the U S forces drove the Japanese back toward the Home Islands the Marines embarked on another tough campaign in the jungles of New Britain and the centre for Japanese forces at Rabaul Contains 114 photos and 20 maps and charts Aside from my own participation I have always felt a keen interest in the New Britain operation Here apparently military teamwork came near to perfection Here it would seem that all arms co operated so smoothly as to make the result easy The truth is that nothing was easy on New Britain Jungle swamp and mountain combined with atrocious weather to multiply problems of time and space Then too the Japanese held an inestimable advantage in their familiarity with the terrain an advantage which they exploited with no little skill It took maneuver on our part to cope with this phalanx of difficulties and before the fighting ended it had sprawled over more territory than any other Marine campaign of the war There is no such thing as a light casualty list and more than 300 Marines paid with their lives in New Britain s fetid jungle But viewed in the light of numbers engaged ground gained and enemy losses it was not a costly victory On the contrary the fighting that ranged from Cape Gloucester to Talasea ranks as one of the most economical operations in the entire Pacific LEMUEL C SHEPHERD JR GENERAL U S MARINE CORPS COMMANDANT OF THE MARINE CORPS
