The Journey to Separate but Equal Jack M. Beermann,2022-10-15 In The Journey to Separate but Equal Madame Decuir s Quest for Racial Justice in the Reconstruction Era Jack Beermann tells the story of how in Hall v Decuir the post Civil War US Supreme Court took its first step toward perpetuating the subjugation of the non White population of the United States by actively preventing a Southern state from prohibiting segregation on a riverboat in the coasting trade on the Mississippi River The Journey to Separate but Equal offers the first complete exploration of Hall v Decuir with an in depth look at the case s record the lives of the parties lawyers and judges and the case s social context in 1870s Louisiana The book centers around the remarkable story of Madame Josephine Decuir and the lawsuit she pursued because she had been illegally barred from the cabin reserved for White women on the Governor Allen riverboat The drama of Madame Decuir s fight against segregation s denial of her dignity as a human and particularly as a woman enriches our understanding of the Reconstruction era especially in Louisiana including political and legal changes that occurred during that time and the plight of people of color who were freed from slavery but denied their dignity and rights as American citizens Hall v Decuir spanned the pivotal period of 1872 1878 during which White segregationist Democrats redeemed the South from Republican control The Supreme Court s ruling in Hall overturned the application of an 1869 Louisiana statute prohibiting racial segregation in Madame Decuir s case because of the status of the Mississippi River as a mode of interstate commerce The decision represents a crucial precedent that established the legal groundwork for the entrenchment of Jim Crow in the law of the United States leading directly to the Court s adoption of separate but equal in Plessy v Ferguson

UNDOC, 1985 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1974 Transnational Perspectives on Culture, Policy, and Education Cameron McCarthy, Cathryn Teasley, 2008 This series publishes critical scholarship that seeks to engage and transcend the disciplinary isolationism and genre confinement that now characterize so much of contemporary research in communication studies and related fields. It focuses on studies that address the broad intersections and hybrid trajectories that define the encounters between human groups in modern institutions and societies and the way these intersections are represented in contemporary popular cultural forms of knowledge.

The Hidden Among the Hidden Helen K. Black, John T. Groce, Charles E. Harmon, 2017-05-02 The growing number of elder men providing hands on care to loved ones particularly spouses undeniably represents a hidden segment of the home care population. With that in consideration caregiving in communities of color in particular is increasing while numbers of informal unpaid caregivers are projected to triple by 2030. Despite statistics studies on African American men who care for other elders such as spouses and parents indeed the hidden among the hidden are negligible. This text follows a study conducted by Helen Black a research scientist focusing on aging alongside John Groce and Charles Harmon founders of Mature Africans Learning from Each Other M A L E in which they interviewed elderly African American men in caregiver roles. As a whole The Hidden Among the Hidden is unique in its study of caregiving in the areas of subject matter methodology and presentation of findings. The men whose attitudes and behaviors toward caregiving are recorded in this book share a wealth of knowledge for other caregivers gerontologists healthcare professionals students and the community in general.

Adolescent Risk Behaviors David A. Wolfe, Peter G. Jaffe, Claire V. Crooks, 2008-10-01 This book focuses on the crucial role that relationships play in the lives of teenagers. The authors particularly examine the ways that healthy relationships can help teens avoid such common risk behaviors as substance abuse dating violence sexual assault and unsafe sexual practices. Addressing the current lack of effective prevention programs for teens they present new strategies for encouraging healthy choices. The book first traces differences between the rules of relating for boys and girls and discusses typical and atypical patterns of experimentation in teens. The authors identify the common link among risk behaviors the relationship connection. In the second part of the book they examine the principles of successful programs used by schools and communities to cultivate healthy adolescent development. An illuminating conclusion describes the key ingredients for engaging adolescents their parents teachers and communities in the effort to promote healthy nonviolent relationships among teens.
