Topic 2.2 The Mongol Empire and the Making of the Modern World

Learning Objective Explain the process of state building and decline in Eurasia over time.	Historical Developments Empires collapsed in different regions of the world and in some areas were replaced by new imperial states, including the Mongol Khanates.	5. Explain how the Mongol Khanates developed: Following the death of Möngke Khan, the 4 Khanates developed due to a lack of a declared successor. Many of his kin declared themselves the Great Khan and none were widely accepted, so they split into 4 khanates. The lack of a strong unifying leader caused the Mongols to lose some of their power as they were no longer the great force

Instructional Supervision Sally J. Zepeda, 2025-06-03 This essential text for prospective school leaders enrolled in instructional supervision and evaluation courses provides the knowledge and practical tools to improve teacher effectiveness. Melding theory and practice, this book is a definitive guide to successful classroom observations pre and post observation conferences and approaches such as action research, peer coaching, and mentoring. The fifth edition of this text has been thoroughly updated to meet the needs of school leaders in today's educational climate. Features new to this edition include: Two new chapters on culturally responsive supervision and using virtual spaces and video analysis to improve instruction; Expanded discussions of SEL, differentiated instruction, and addressing marginal teachers; Updated chapter features including revised Extended Reflections, Suggested Activities, and Suggested Readings; New citations and references throughout to reflect the current educational climate; A wealth of downloadable classroom observation tools accessible by visiting www.routledge.com. 9781032638003 This book offers effective and innovative strategies to work with teachers at all stages in their careers, laying a strong foundation for effective instructional supervision in PreK-12 schools. Focus on World History

Kathy Sammis, 2002-09 Topics include: Early human communities; Emergence of agricultural societies; Civilizations of Mesopotamia, Egypt, the Indus Valley, and Greece; The great empires of Persia, China, India, and Rome; The emergence of major religions. Hands-On History: World History Activities Garth Sundem, Kristi Pikiwicz, 2006-04-25 Making learning fun and interactive is a surefire way to excite your social studies students. This book includes game-formatted activities for major historical topics. While the goal of these activities is to create excitement and to spark interest in further study, they are also standards-based and include grading rubrics and ideas for assessment. Encouraging teamwork, creativity, intelligent reflection, and decision-making, the games of Hands on History Activities will help you take an active approach to teaching while inspiring your students to make their own explorations of history. This resource is aligned to the interdisciplinary themes from the Partnership for 21st Century Skills. 204pp. The Principal as Instructional Leader Sally J. Zepeda, 2014-01-09

First Published in 2013, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. Teaching History with Film Alan S. Marcus, Scott Alan Metzger, Richard J. Paxton, Jeremy D. Stoddard, 2018-07-04 Teaching History with Film provides a fresh, engaging, and clear overview of teaching with film to effectively enhance social studies instruction. Using cases of experienced teachers to illustrate accomplished history teaching through movies, this text provides pre and in-service teachers with ideas for implementing film-based lessons in their own classrooms and offers a deeper understanding of the thorny issues involved in using film to teach history. The second edition is completely revised and updated, including two entirely new case studies, a new chapter focusing on using international film, and incorporating a more global view in the classroom, and additional material on using film to tackle difficult and controversial issues, as well as updates to all of the cases. Each section of the book focuses on how teachers can effectively support the development of students' historical film literacy through topics such as using film to develop interpretive skills to explore controversial issues and to develop historical empathy By developing the skills students need to think critically about the past or what they think they know about history the lessons in this book illustrate how to harness the pedagogical power of film to provide the tools necessary for rigorous inquiry and democratic citizenship Special features include Reflection on the Case following each chapter analyzing and discussing the strengths and limitations of the teacher s approach as well as providing strategies for using and choosing films specific to the educational outcome Sample unit outlines descriptions of class texts and films worksheets essay questions viewer guides and exercises for the classroom throughout Discussion of the practical considerations facing classroom teachers including juggling time restraints issues of parental permission and meeting standards
