Summarize the paragraph in one sentence.

QUEST LEVEL

The effect that the Civil War had on the United States (1844-1877)

The mid-19th century in the United States was dominated by the burning question of the Civil War, a conflict that would determine the nation's very soul. From 1844 to 1877, the country was torn apart by the issue of slavery, which led to the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861. The war ended in 1865 with the Union's victory, but the process of Reconstruction was a long and difficult one.

The abolition of slavery was a major achievement of the Civil War, but it was not the only one. The war also led to the passage of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, which guaranteed the rights of all citizens, regardless of race or ethnicity.

The Reconstruction era was a period of great change and growth for the United States. The country was rebuilding itself after the devastation of the Civil War, and the process of Reconstruction was a long and difficult one. The war had led to the passage of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, which guaranteed the rights of all citizens, regardless of race or ethnicity.
