Back from Hell Laurie Woods,2014-08-08 The adrenaline that pumps through the veins of men flying Lancaster bombers over Germany while ack ack explodes around them is only matched by the gut wrenching nervousness in their stomach Will I be the next statistic Shortly after the war the memories keep flooding back through nightmares that are distorted from the reality but even more frightening You will live the reality of Laurie s war and the struggles with the acceptance by the Australian community of a man who defended Australia from Europe In addition you will read of a man like many others married too quickly prior to World War II and came home to difficult relationships Will this war hero find peace

Watching Movies with Christian Eyes Susan Maluschka,2019-04-04 Many people don t like to watch movies or have time to do so That s okay This book is not about watching movies It s about looking at how you live your life and what you want for your future Movies are just stories about life so even if you don t watch them you can still learn from them here Some of life s most important lessons are learned through stories What better way to hear these stories than on the big screen Movies draw us in and touch our lives in ways we never imagined The best part is that our supply is limitless Here we have stories for all ages As we watch the characters on the screen we see ourselves our need for love and understanding hope for the future or wish for revenge against someone who wronged us We see how the characters on the screen deal with these emotions but as Christians how should we deal with ours In this study movies from different times and different genres offer us an opportunity to delve into the Bible and see the choices our heavenly Father wants us to make under similar circumstances Each lesson will review one or more aspects of the movie and provide an opportunity for reflection or discussion Bible passages are also referenced to enhance understanding Now that we have this information what do we do with it Odds are that people around you every day are looking for this information as well What a comfortable way to share your faith with your friends co workers or neighbors while you discuss the latest flick These Bible studies can be taught to a group of people or they can be done individually Popcorn is optional

Young Citizen Old Soldier". From boyhood in Antrim to Hell on the

Somme David Truesdale,2012-08-19 For almost 43 years three school notebooks lay in obscurity in the County Armagh home of sixty two year old James McRoberts The closely filled pages recorded just over two years in his life in uniform as he played his part in what was then known as the Great War During the Home Rule crisis of 1914 one of several in Ireland s history James McRoberts like many other men joined the Young Citizen Volunteers an organization that eventually became the 14th Royal Irish Rifles a battalion of the 36th Ulster Division These notebooks written at the time and with footnotes added some forty years later record his Army service between 8 January 1915 and 3 April 1917 They tell with remarkable immediacy of his time at Randalstown County Antrim and the move to Seaford in East Sussex From here after further training James moved with his Battalion to the trenches of the Western Front Written with a degree of humor and some detail his story covers the mundane routine of camp life recreation behind the lines the horrors of enemy shelling the deaths of good friends and the momentous events of 1 July 1916 on the Somme when his unit was in the thick of the action On 1 November 1917 while acting as a scout for a night patrol at Messines Ridge James was seriously wounded and evacuated to hospital for him the War was over Nevertheless he continued to record what was happening around him both with humour and in detail Classed as 80% disabled he was eventually discharged and returned home to enjoy a postwar career as a surveyor in County Armagh This is a remarkable memoir that is by turns lively candid humorous poignant and above all a window into the world of an Ulsterman who found himself both witness and participant to a series of remarkable events His descriptions of army life both daily routine and the inferno on the Somme in July 1916 add greatly to our knowledge of this most climactic period of history David Truesdale opted for early retirement in 1998 and since then has written for films and television and produced two battlefield guides on behalf of the Royal Irish Fusiliers Museum The First Eagle the 87th Foot at the Battle of Barrosa and Regulars by God The 89th Foot at the Battle of Lundy s Lane He is the author of Brotherhood of the Cauldron Irishmen in the 1st Airborne Division at Arnhem Angels and Heroes the story of a machine gunner with the Royal Irish Fusiliers August 1914 to April 1915 with Amanda Moreno Irish Winners of the Victoria Cross with Richard Doherty Leading The Way To Arnhem a history of the 21st Independent Parachute Company with Peter Gijbels Arnhem Their Final Battle the 11th Parachute Battalion 1943 44 with Gerrit Pijpers With David Orr he has written The Rifles are There 1st The Royal Ulster Rifles in Korea They are currently in collaboration on a history of the Ulster Volunteer Force and 36th Ulster Division 1913 1919 For relaxation he paints in watercolours following the Kelly school of innovation photographs wildlife listens to good music drinks red wine and finds that Tomaso Albinoni 1671 1751 and his Oboe Concerto in D Minor Op 9 No2 has been an inspiration during difficult times in any manuscript

Hell on a Leash Michael McCloskey,2011-01-02 Nergal Ralcander Avawo and Kreen are the meanest most dangerous brigands in the Three Kingdoms A disparate group they find in common between themselves only brute strength consummate skill and ruthless drive Having just made the heist of their career they simply wish to escape from the soldiers hunting for them but soon they become enslaved to an evil greater than themselves

Passport to Hell Robin Hyde, 2013-10-01 This man is the biggest laziest rottenest most troublesome And in the trenches he s one of the best soldiers I ever had Passport to Hell is the story of James Douglas Stark Starkie and his war Journalist and novelist Robin Hyde came across Starkie while reporting in Mt Eden Gaol in the 1930s and immediately knew she had to write his queer true terrible story The result was greeted by John A Lee war veteran author and politician as the most important New Zealand war book yet published Born in Southland and finding himself in early trouble with the law the young Starkie tricked his way into a draft in 1914 by means of a subterfuge involving whisky and tea In his subsequent chequered career in Egypt Gallipoli Armenti res the Somme Ypres he showed himself a soldier and not a soldier with a contempt of danger and discipline alike Hyde took the raw horrors respites and reversals of Starkie s experiences and composed a work of literature much greater than a mere documentary of war She portrays a man carousing in the brothels of Cairo and the estaminets of Flanders looting a dead man s money belt and filching beer from the Tommies attempting to shoot a sergeant through a lavatory door in a haze of absinthe yet carrying his wounded captain back across No Man s Land a man recommended for the V C and honoured for his bravery but also subject to nine court martials It is a portrait of a singular individual something of a visionary in Hyde s words who has also been described as the quintessential New Zealand soldier And against the contradictory elements of Starkie s character Hyde shows a war machine that preaches Thalt shall do no murder one moment and sends men over the top the following day to kill Robin Hyde was one of New Zealand s true literary trailblazers and in this book she redefined the parameters of novel and memoir In its psychological acuity and emotional depth Passport to Hell is one of the finest

A Worse Place Than Hell: How the Civil War Battle of Fredericksburg Changed a Nation John Matteson, 2021-02-09 Pulitzer Prize winning author John Matteson illuminates three harrowing months of the Civil War and their enduring legacy for America December 1862 drove the United States toward a breaking point The Battle of Fredericksburg shattered Union forces and Northern confidence As Abraham Lincoln s government threatened to fracture this critical moment also tested five extraordinary individuals whose lives reflect the soul of a nation The changes they underwent led to profound repercussions in the country s law literature politics and popular mythology Taken together their stories offer a striking restatement of what it means to be American Guided by patriotism driven by desire all five moved toward singular destinies A young Harvard intellectual steeped in courageous ideals Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr confronted grave challenges to his concept of duty The one eyed army chaplain Arthur Fuller pitted his frail body against the evils of slavery Walt Whitman a gay Brooklyn poet condemned by the guardians of propriety and Louisa May Alcott a struggling writer seeking an authentic voice and her father s admiration tended soldiers wracked bodies as nurses On the other side of the national schism John Pelham a West Point cadet from Alabama achieved a unique excellence in artillery tactics as he served a doomed and misbegotten cause A Worse Place Than Hell brings together the prodigious forces of war with the intimacy of individual lives Matteson interweaves the historic and the personal in a work as beautiful as it is powerful
