Ruling Ideas Cornel Ban, 2016-06-16 Neoliberal economic theories are powerful because their domestic translators make them go local hybridizing global scripts with local ideas This does not mean that all local translations shape policy however External constraints and translators access to cohesive policy institutions filter what kind of neoliberal hybrids become policy reality By comparing the moderate neoliberalism that prevails in Spain with the more radical one that shapes policy thinking in Romania Ruling Ideas explains why neoliberal hybrids take the forms that they do and how they survive crises Cornel Ban contributes to the literature by showing that these different varieties of neoliberalism depend on what competing ideas are available locally on the networks of actors who serve as the local advocates of neoliberalism and on their vulnerability to external coercion Ruling Ideas covers an extended historical period starting with the Franco period in Spain and the Ceausescu period in Romania discusses the economic integration of these countries into the EU and continues through Europe's Great Recession and the European debt crisis The broad historical coverage enables a careful analysis of how neoliberalism rules in times of stability and crisis and under different political systems

The Non-Aligned Movement and the Cold War Natasa Miskovic, Harald Fischer-Tiné, Nada Boskovska, 2014-04-16 The idea of non alignment and peaceful coexistence was not new when Yugoslavia hosted the Belgrade Summit of the Non Aligned in September 1961 Freedom activists from the colonies in Asia Africa and South America had been discussing such issues for decades already but this long lasting context is usually forgotten in political and historical assessments of the Non Aligned Movement This book puts the Non Aligned Movement into its wider historical context and sheds light on the long term connections and entanglements of the Afro Asian world It assembles scholars from differing fields of research such as Asian Studies Eastern European and Southeast European History Cold War Studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations In doing so this volume looks back to the ideological beginnings of the concept of peaceful coexistence at the time of the anticolonial movements and at the multi faceted challenges of foreign policy the former freedom fighters faced when they established their own decolonized states It analyses the crucial role Yugoslav president Tito played in his determination to keep his country out of the blocs and finally examines the main achievement of the Non Aligned Movement to give subordinate states of formerly subaltern peoples a voice in the international system An innovative look at the Non Aligned Movement with a strong historical component the book will be of great interest to academics working in the field of International Affairs international history of the 20th century the Cold War Race Relations as well as scholars interested in Asian African and Eastern European history
