Randall,Dominik Schoebi,2018-09-27 Emotions play a powerful role in close relationships Significant progress has been made in understanding the temporal features of emotions associated with the development and maintenance of close relationships across the lifespan This advancement has revealed further questions which theories help conceptualize interpersonal emotion dynamics What are the ways researchers can assess and model these dynamics How do interpersonal emotion dynamics manifest in different close relationships And do these emotion dynamics contribute to the maintenance or dissolution of relationships Interpersonal Emotion Dynamics in Close Relationships addresses these and other questions by bringing together state of the art perspectives from scholars widely recognized for their contributions to the study of emotions in relationships Each chapter defines interpersonal emotion dynamics reviews methodological or empirical work and offers important directions for future research This volume will be a valuable resource for students researchers and practitioners interested in understanding the role of emotions in relationships

Literature and Moral Feeling Patrick Colm Hogan,2022-05-05 An influential body of recent work on moral psychology has stressed the interconnections among ethics narrative and empathy Yet as Patrick Colm Hogan argues this work is so vague in its use of the term narrative as to be almost substanceless and this vagueness is in large part due to the neglect of literary study Extending his previous work on universal story structures Hogan argues that we can transform ill defined intuitions about narrative and ethics into explicit and systematic accounts of the deep connections between moral attitudes and narratives These connections are in turn inseparable from empathy a concept that Hogan proceeds to clarify and defend against a number of widely read critiques In the course of the book Hogan develops and illustrates his arguments through analyses of global narratives constructing illuminating ethical interpretations of literary works ranging from Shakespeare to Chinese drama and the Bhagavad Gita

From Self to Social Relationships Martijn van Zomeren,2016-07-07 What is it that moves and motivates us in our lives Martijn van Zomeren proposes that social relationships are at the essence of this key question and in a fascinating investigation into human motivation he develops a novel and integrative psychological theory termed selvations theory The theory suggests that we are essentially relational beings that seek to regulate relationships in response to felt changes in our network of relationships selvations However we need to do this in culturally appropriate ways and this is where our culturally construed self comes to be of use From Self to Social Relationships constitutes a powerful argument about human essence integrating major theories in and around psychology which has strong implications for the study and practice of social motivation in Affective and Pleasurable Design Shuichi Fukuda, 2018-06-26 This book discusses the latest advances in affective and pleasurable design. Further, it reports on important theoretical and practical issues covering a wealth of topics including aesthetics in product and system design, design-driven innovation, affective computing, evaluation tools for emotion, Kansei engineering for products and services, and many more. Based on the AHFE 2018 International Conference on Affective and Pleasurable Design held on July 21-25, 2018, in Orlando, Florida, USA, the book provides a timely survey and inspiring guide for all researchers and professionals involved in design, e.g., industrial designers, emotion designers, ethnographers, human-computer interaction researchers, human factors engineers, interaction designers, mobile product designers, and vehicle system designers.

Social Media and Crisis Communication Yan Jin, Lucinda L. Austin, 2017-06-27 Social Media and Crisis Communication provides a unique and timely contribution to the field of crisis communication by addressing how social media are influencing the practice of crisis communication. The book, with a collection of chapters contributed by leading communication researchers, covers the current and emerging interplay of social media and crisis communication, recent theories and frameworks, overviews of dominant research streams, applications in specific crisis areas, and future directions. Both the theoretical and the practical are discussed, providing a volume that appeals to both academic-minded readers as well as professionals at the managerial decision-making level. The audience includes public relations and corporate communication scholars, graduate students studying social media and crisis communication, researchers, crisis managers working in communication departments, and business leaders who make strategic business communication planning. No other volume has provided the overarching synthesis of information regarding the field of crisis communication and social media that this book contains. Incorporated in this volume is the recent Social-Mediated Crisis Communication Model developed by the editors and their co-authors, which serves as a framework for crisis and issues management in a rapidly evolving media landscape.
