NA'IMA B. ROBERT

From my sisters' lips

A unique celebration of Muslim womanhood

From My Sisters Lips

Colleen Sell

From My Sisters Lips:

From My Sisters' Lips Na'ima bint Robert, Naima Bint Robert, 2005 Covered from head to toe with only her eyes visible the sight of a Muslim woman on a western city street rarely fails to provoke a strong reaction Feelings of shock horror repulsion pity or even fear are not uncommon But have you ever wondered who it is behind the veil and what makes her tick Ever wondered what her life is really like and whether her dreams hopes and aspirations differ from yours Now in FROM MY SISTERS LIPS Na ima B Robert offers a rare glimpse into the lives of a community of women most of whom are converts to Islam and invites you to share their joys sorrows convictions and faith years ago it was not a decision taken lightly Yet soon after she took the first tentative steps towards covering she felt empowered no longer judged on physical appearances alone no longer seeking the approval to feel beautiful or using her looks to wield power over men the experience effected her greatly Before long she grew in confidence and courage As she says Something just clicked I thought Good don t look don t compare me with your latest squeeze don t try and guess my measurements my body is my own business As Na ima recounts the compelling story of her conversion to Islam she also offers first hand accounts of just some of the extraordinary Muslim women she has come to know in recent years women like herself who have chosen to live behind the veil What emerges is a vivid and intimate portrait of a sisterhood as they speak candidly and with conviction on a diverse range of subjects ranging from marriage to motherhood stereotypes submission and self image we hear the strong proud voices of those who are seldom heard world usually seen only by those privileged enough to be admitted to it s inner circle It is also a celebration of womanhood a celebration of those who have chosen to live behind the veil A Cup of Comfort for Sisters Colleen Sell, 2007-08-01 A powerful collection of stories that celebrate the special bonds of sisterhood No one knows a woman quite like her sister does no matter their differences rivalries or how far apart they may drift over time Sisters confide in each other share their most intimate secrets and depend on each other for support and guidance when everyone else in their lives disappoints them This unique collection celebrates the special relationship that only sisters share The sisters in A Cup of Comfort for Sisters care for one another through good times and bad providing advice and a reassuring hug when they are needed most British Muslim Converts Kate Zebiri, 2014-10-01 Indispensable for anyone trying to understand Islam in the West When the Western mass media talk of conversion to Islam we are bombarded with accounts of vulnerable people brainwashed into a culture of extremism However in reality the vast majority who convert are well educated and doing so as the result of a long considered and heartfelt decision What is more their numbers are multiplying The only exploration of this unique group in British society this well argued and powerful book investigates the fascinating contribution that Western converts to Islam are making to Islamic thought The Blind Sisters of Saint Paul Maurice de La Sizeranne, Lilian Marian Leggatt, 1907 A Cup of Comfort Stories for Sisters Colleen Sell, 2012-01-15 No one knows you as a woman quite like your sister does no matter your differences rivalries or how far apart you may drift over time You confide in each other share your most intimate secrets and depend on each other for support and guidance when everyone else in your lives disappoints you The three stories in A Cup of Comfort for Sisters celebrate the special relationship that only sisters share You ll relate to how these sisters care for one another through good times and bad providing advice and a reassuring hug when they are needed most

About My Sister'S Business Fran Harris,1996-08-29 Harris nominated for Entrepreneur of the Year by Inc magazine offers big ideas to small business owners Here she turns her attention to the stories of African American women who have learned to thrive economically under the most adverse circumstances and pinpoints how others can follow in their footsteps Harris explores the roadblocks that African American women face on thier journeys toward business ownership and helps readers evaluate their progress

Making of Midge, The Mildred Thompson Olson,2005-06-09 Though most people aren t aware of the fact South Dakota really is the center of the world At least that is what Mildred Thompson thought until she entered the fourth grade It was here surrounded by a simple farming community and her seven siblings that Midge spent her early childhood during the 1920s and 30s The Making of Midge tells the exploits of a young girl whose insatiable curiosity and knack for trouble earned her the title of one of the Katzenjammer Kids at the tender age of two Throughout her childhood she not only lived questioned and explored life to the fullest but learned valuable lessons of forgiveness humility and love as well Experience with her a childhood filled with adventure as she almost burns alive from a lit Christmas tree endures childhood illnesses sets the prairie afire to catch gophers almost loses the family farm builds a car out of a washing machine and is part of a miracle after her brush with death from appendicitis Through it all she learns more about a God that loves and cares about her and begins a life long desire to become an overseas missionary As you read this book you will see how her family and church helped Jesus make Midge

TOMMORROW MY SISTER SAID, TOMORROW NEVER CAME Metha Parisien Bercier,2013-03-14 TOMORROW My Sister Said Tomorrow Never Came Metis language translated into English That s the train you ll ride on Papa said Mama muffled sounds as she pulled me close to her then my two sisters My little girls I m going to miss you so much I was very confused I wanted to cry I didn t like seeing my Mama cry Why aren t Mama and Papa coming with us I thought as we were guided onto the train I tried looking out the window wanting to see Mama and Papa once more and was told to sit As the train blew its loud whistle we slowly began to move Once more I jumped up and pressed my face to the window Mama Papa I cried until their faces faded in the distance I was five years old I didn t understand where I was going Several long hours came to pass as an overwhelming sadness continued to engulf me I could not control my tears I wanted to go home I wanted my Mama I wanted my Papa The more my sisters Helene and Lucy tried to console me the harder I cried Shhh Helene whispered As I closed my heavy eyes and laid my head on her lap I heard her softly say Tomorrow tomorrow we ll go home My sisters were big girls They were much older than I They would know when I would get to see my Mama and Papa and my Brother Tommy again After all Helene was eight years old and Lucy was seven They would take care of me Papa told them to watch over me My world as I knew it no longer existed We were shipped off to a government boarding school It was 1927 Indians must be civilized The Indians must be divorced from his primitive ways We must recreate him Make a new personality Teach them the white man s ways Helene Lucy Where are you As time passed I began to forget my Mama and Papa and all that was before Did the government succeeded in recreating me I was now eight years old We were told we would get to go home for the summer I wanted to stay at school I would miss my friends Again another unknown world was thrown at me A sadness engulfed me again A sadness I knew I felt before What did Mama and Papa look like Where did we live I tried to picture home family but the memories of when I left home seem to be forgotten Three long years passed since my sister Helene said these words Tomorrow my sister
