Chapters 1-50 Summaries

Chapter 1

Chapter 1 of "Great Expectations" serves as the introduction to the novel and introduces the reader to the protagonist, Pip, and the bleak and desolate landscape in which he lives.

The story begins with Pip's description of his own name, revealing that he could not pronounce his full name, Philip Pimp, as a child, and it was shortened to Pip. Pip also mentions the existence of his parents, whom he never knew, as they passed away early in his life. Pip is an orphan and lives with his abusive sister, Mrs. Joe Gargery, in a small village on the marshes of southeastern England.

Pip is at the age of seven when the events of the chapter take place. He narrates how he was raised by hand, implying that he was not treated with kindness or affection. His sister, Mrs. Joe, is strict and harsh, and her husband, Joe Gargery, is a kind and gentle blacksmith who is often overshadowed by his domineering wife.

On a misty and cold evening, Pip visits his parents' graves in the village churchyard. This visit to the graveyard is a significant event in his life and is where he encounters an escaped convict. The convict, who is dressed in rags and with a heavy iron shackle around his leg, grabs Pip and threatens him, demanding food and a file to remove his leg iron.

Pip is terrified and runs home to steal food and a file from his sister's pantry. He returns to the graveyard and hands these items to the convict, who is grateful but also menacing. Pip is frightened but also sympathetic to the man's plight.

As Pip leaves the graveyard, he becomes overwhelmed with guilt and fear of being caught. He imagines his sister, Mrs. Joe, discovering his actions and punishing him severely. The nightmarish vision of his sister's wrath haunts him.

Chapter 1 sets the tone for the novel, establishing the gloomy and oppressive atmosphere of Pip's life. The bleak marshes, the harsh treatment by his sister, and the chance encounter with the escaped convict all contribute to the sense of foreboding and tension in the story. It also introduces the themes of social class, guilt, and the desire for improvement that will be central to Pip's character development throughout the novel.
